Most men are pret-ty sure to fall In love full man-y times, With Whena pol-i-ti-cian wants to get A good fat si-ne-cure, He'll I went down town the oth-er night And had a lit-tle time, My I struck a scheme the oth-er day A source of wealth I knew, With pret - ty maids who charm them And catch them with their smiles, They prom - ise you this great big earth And perhaps a lit - tle more, Then mon - ey soon was squandered, I did - n't have a dime, I just a lit - tle cap - i - tal I knew I'd pull it thro' I'd draw them on to - tell their love In their own eun - ning way, And when he gets in of - fice you Re - mind him of his word, He went in - to Del - mon - i - co's And eat a sumptuous meal, I be as rich as Cre - o - sus, Or an - y oth - er Jay, I when poor man his sto - ry tells So qui - et - ly they say - waves you off and proud - ly says, As he shows to you the door - said I'd call a - gain and pay But they quick - ly ans - wered me - took it to a cap - tal - ist, He qui - et - ly did say -

"GOOD-BY OLD KEARSARGE" a spirited patriotic song, quartett chorus.

CHORUS.

Go tell your sto - ry to the phon - o - graph, That's what they Go tell your sto - ry to the phon - o - graph, That's what they Go tell your sto - ry to the phon - o - graph, So quickly did they Go tell your sto - ry to the phon - o - graph, You think you're say to us And give us the laugh, They think they're fun-ny when they say to us And give us the laugh, They've got the wheat and you have seize me that I had'n't time to laugh, They threw me out of doors and smart my boy but I think you're daft, Try some one else my boy on feed us chaff, And think they've said some - thing new..... got the chaff, And then they are through with you..... ripped my coat in half, My cus - tom they lost right there..... whom to work your graft, Your schemewont go down with me.....

"NORAH AROON" a sweet little ballad. 40^c
