AN up-to-date monthly, which appeals to all Musicians, Teachers, Scholars, the Home, and to all who enjoy good and deserving music.

It contains short stories and musical notes in its reading columns, but above all it gives you 17 pages of full sized music, both vocal and instrumental, interspersed with string music from time to time. Often the latest and most valuable copyrights are published, thus appealing to the tastes of the modern school, as well as the old masters. A glance at a sample copy will convince anyone who loves music that this is the Journal par excellence.

In a word, it is the greatest and cheapest music journal ever published. Suited for the masses. Printed on fine velvet finished enameled paper, beautifully illustrated title page.

Cost only $1.00 per year subscription. Single copies 10 cts. For $1.00 you get alone about fifty pieces of the best music, both classic and popular. You cannot afford to be without it. Send in your subscription at once and receive a magnificent present besides. Address,
