

NO

THE DEATH of ENSIGN BAGLEY

3-OCT 30
COPY 1973

W. Kneass Baldwin.

NOTE. Not of the glories of war or for the enthusiasm of Patriots is this song written. It tells a story of the sad fate of one of America's noblest and most daring heroes, Ensign Bagley, of the Torpedo boat Winslow. The first American Officer to fall in the Spanish War.

1. With - in an hum - ble cot - tage not
2. Up - on the gal - lant Wins - low our ver - y far a - way A dear old moth - er's no - ble En - sign stands Di - rects our dead - ly weep - - ing her son will sail to - day. Be - cannon - ade a - gainst the Span - ish lands. A

Copyright MDCCCXCVIII by Chas. O. Brokaw. International Copyright. Entered at Stationers Hall.

I Was Once Your Wife.

Browne and Rosenfeld's famous Court-room Song. A song that appeals to every lover of the descriptive ballad.
At Any Music Store. 50 Cents. Never Out of Print.

side her stands her on - ly boy a gal - lant sail - or shell burst just a - bove him then fell in - to the lad ————— He look - ed at her in an - guish his foam ————— He gave a cry of a - go - ny and face tear - stained and sad ————— His ship's been called a - fell back with a moan ————— His com - rade crew stood way to war to sail with - in a day ————— Oh o'er his form as they bade him last "Good Bye" ————— He's

The Death of Ensign Bagley. 4.

THE LATEST SONG "HIT" BY MONROE H. ROSENFELD IS

Don't Ask Me to Give Up My Mother.

Words by R. A. BROWNE.

Music by MONROE H. ROSENFELD.

Raymond A. Browne has told in song a mother story that at once appeals to all, while Monroe H. Rosenfeld has, beyond a doubt, written one of the catchiest melodies he has ever devised.

At Any First Class Music Store. 50 Cents. Never Out of Print.

moth - er dear how can I go and leave you in this go - ing home to moth - er. 'tis sad that he should way? My son said she, with trem - bling voice, 'tis a die A star - ry flag they o'er him spread as worth - y cause you know. He knelt be - side her, on the deck he lay, A sac - ri - fice to kissed her brow, said "moth - er good bye." I'll go.

du - ty's call the he - ro of the day.

The Death of Ensign Bagley. 4.

EVERYBODY SINGS

SHUT YOAH EYES.

DRAKE and WHEELER'S Coon Lullaby.

It is a positive winner and should not be overlooked in your search for fine ones.

Any First Class Music Store. 50 Cents. Never Out of Print.

CHORUS.

'Tis the same old sto-ry, — a life for what was right. — He left his home and moth-er. — on the brin - y deep to fight — He ne'er for-got her last dear words, 'tis a worth - y cause you know — For hon - or's sake good men have died, my son I bid you go. —

The Death of Ensign Bagley. 4.

Never in the art of song writing have two composers worked so favorably together as has
D. R. DRAKE and H. O. WHEELER in their latest little coon lullaby,

Mammy's Little Blue Grass Honey.

The melody and harmony of this little song is, beyond a doubt, far ahead of anything yet written. It is pronounced by Isadore Rush the best she has ever heard.

At Any First Class Music Store. Price, 50c. Never Out of Print.

Scanning Target

Edison Sheet Music

Item no.: 100004259

Title: The death of ensign Bagley

Box no. and finding aid no.: 3/188

Cover to be scanned in color: no cover

Contact: Karen Lund, x70156
Lauren Woodis, x73939
Pat Padua, x75904