FAIR ELLA LEE

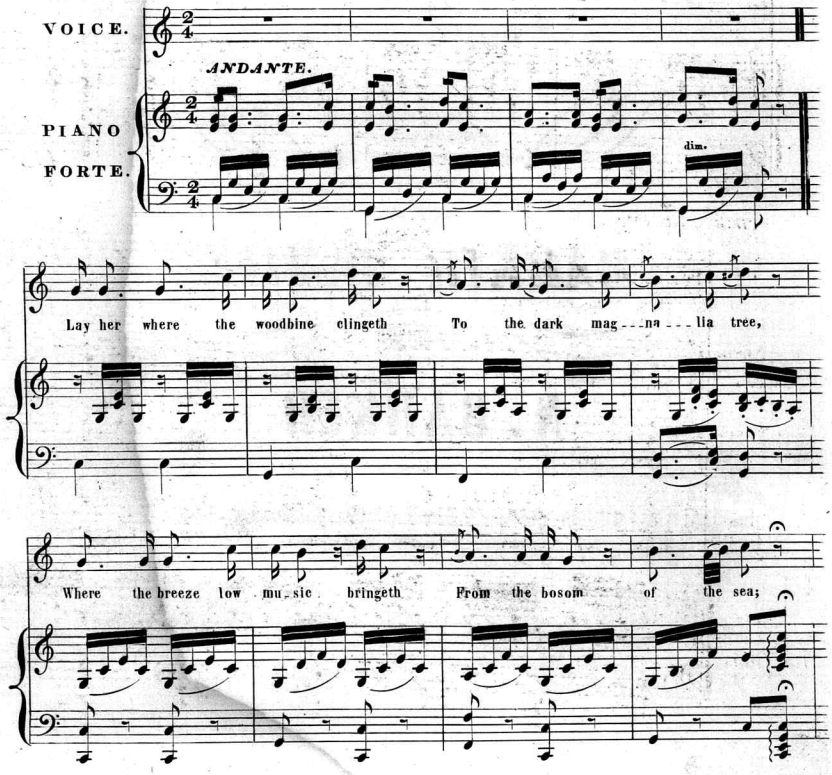
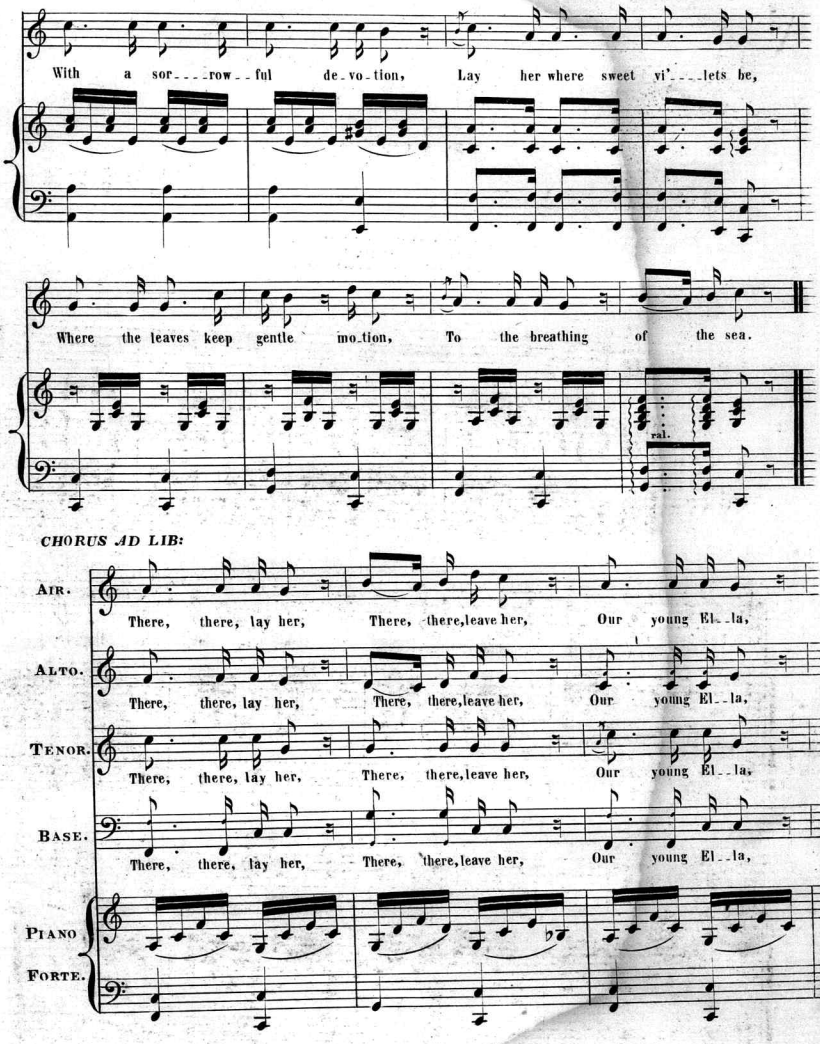
SONG & CHORUS,

Music Composed _____ by N. BARKER.

Ever blooming as the summer,
Ever humming like the bee;
We believed her some bright being
From the land where souls are free.





With a sor---row--ful de-vo-tion, Lay her where sweet vi'---lets be,
Where the leaves keep gentle mo-tion, To the breathing of the sea.

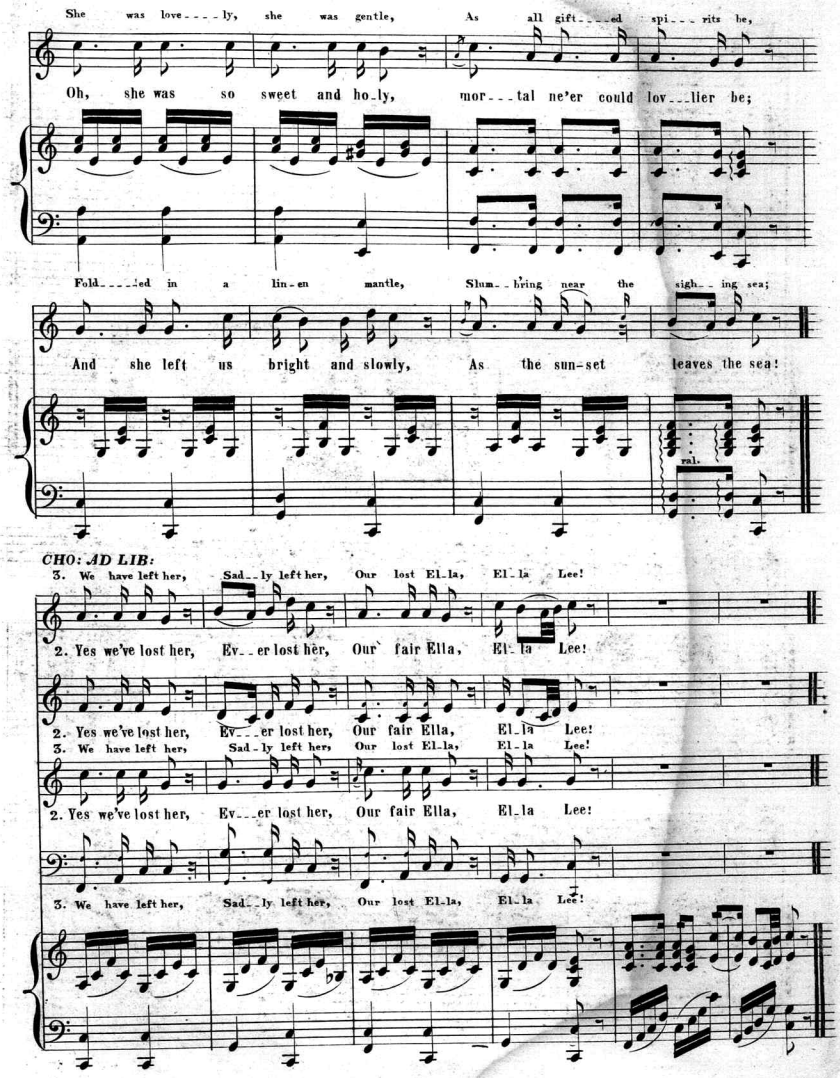
Where the lone___ly wil_low weepeth Like a mourn___er by the sea.
We be_lieved her some bright being From the land where souls are free.



She was love---ly, she was gentle, As all gift---ed spi---rits be,
Oh, she was so sweet and ho-ly, mor---tal ne'er could lov---lier be;
Fold---ed in a lin-en mantle, Slum--bring near the sigh--ing sea;
And she left us bright and slowly, As the sun-set leaves the sea!
