3.

They light bonfires in the street and fill me room with smoke,
Do you know Mrs. Dugan me old man would like for to choke;
If you send out for a pint of ale they'd talk of this and that,
On ev'ry flight there is a fight, in McCormicks Irish Flat.

Chorus.

Of a hot night in the summer time they never let me sleep,
For their singing Annie Laurie out on the fire escape,
Sure I can never close an eye between them and the cats,
For ev'ry brick there is a mick, in McCormicks Irish Flat.

Chorus.

Tis in the fifth election me boys we hold our grip,
All bunded boys together fardown high and tip,
We sweep them all before us, bold, solid democrats,
Five hundred men registered from McCormicks Irish Flat.

Chorus.
