Words and Music by Chas. A. Burke.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The tempo is marked 'Andante moderato'.

1. I see a fair young girl who sits with - in a drear - y room,
2. Oh, who can tell what mem - o - ries are in her heart to - day?

p

The first system of the vocal part shows two lines of lyrics. The melody is in a minor key with a 2/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady accompaniment.

Watch - ing all a - lone a - mid the twi - light's gather - ing gloom;
Thoughts of all that might have been, and dear ones far a - way.

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment.

Sure - ly that dear face knew noth - ing but the sweets of life;
All night she has kept her vig - il wait - ing for the one

The final system concludes the vocal part and piano accompaniment.

What should cause her lov-ing heart to fear life's wea-ry strife?
 Who had prom-ised, on his word of hon-or, he would come.

Then a look of dis-ap-point-ment o'er her face does dart.
 How could ev'-ry trace of man-hood from his soul de-part?

See the deep de-spair up-on that lov-ing face so true,
 What can he ex-pect of mer-cy on the judg-ment day?
