'neath the pale moon's mys - tic light, When some great big
At the club till half - past - three, When they brought him clouds ap - pear, Bet - ty greets them with a tear, home at four, Mis - ter Moon left town once more, Tells them they're not wel - come here, Then she shouts out loud and clear.
Then the key - hole left the door, And his friends heard Bill im-plore.
Chorus.
2nd Verse.
Fare - well (hic) dear old Mis - ter Moon we hate to see you go, We wish you'd stay the live-long day and shine on us below that's so; You're mem-'ry beams on us it seems all If you were here I'd have no fear that morn-ing night and noon, And when you leave we I might get in soon, But now I'll stay till
