BEAUTIFUL SONGS.

BY THE EMINENT COMPOSER,

John T. Rutledge.

THIS Author's compositions are among the most Popular Songs published in this country. Each one of this list is printed with a beautiful title in two colors. Buy one and you will be sure to want all the others.

WE'LL NEVER GROW TOO OLD TO LOVE.

We'll never grow too old to love,
Dear heart, as time goes by;
Let some what will, the test to prove,
Our love will never die.
Our love will never die,
In summer when the dews are fair,
In winter dear and cold,
The same affection will be there;
We'll never grow too old.

CHORUS.
We'll never grow too old to love,
Dear heart, as time goes by;
Let some what will, the test to prove,
We'll never grow too old.

HAVE YOU FORSAKEN ME, DARLING.

Have you forsaken me darling,
And must we wander apart,
Has some one taken thee, darling,
Leaving me lonely at heart,
Has all I love flown forever,
Has time no joy left for me,
Will you not love me—no, never,
Fondly as I have loved thee.

ONLY A DREAM OF MY MOTHER.

Only a dream of my mother,
Vision of dearest delight,
Cheering my heart as no other,
Thro' all the long weary night,
Linger with me in thy kindness,
Till I shall see her again;
Waking would bring me but sadness,
Linger and keep me from pain.

CHORUS.
Only a dream of my mother,
Vision of dearest delight,
Cheering my heart as no other,
Thro' all the long weary night.

GLAD TIDINGS FROM LOVED ONES AT HOME.

I was lonely last night in my dreaming,
In my chamber so dark and so dreaming,
For it seemed that the darkness came streaming
Around me with nothing to cheer,
I dreamt of those nearest and dearest
To me as a stranger I roam;
But the morn brings the letter I cherished,
With tidings from loved ones at home.

CHORUS.
Glad tidings from loved ones at home,
To me as a stranger I roam,
The loving ones bid me to come,
'Tis tidings, glad tidings from home.

KEEP YOUR LITTLE HEART FOR ME,

I was dreaming of you, darling,
All the long and lonely night,
And I saw your face so lovely
And your sunny smile so bright,
And I'm coming back to meet you,
Coming back to home and thee,
Are you waiting love to greet me?
Keep your little heart for me.

CHORUS.
All my lonely dreams are over,
And my heart is light and free,
I will come, no more to leave you,
Keep your little heart for me.

HOW CAN I HELP THINKING OF YOU.

How can I help thinking of you, little May,
I see your sweet face in my dreams;
I think of you, darling, by night and by day,
For you don't know how bright my life seems.
'Tis all for love you give, little one,
That makes the world brighter to me,
You've taken my heart, love, and now I have none,
And that's why I'm thinking of thee.

CHORUS.
How can I help thinking of you, little one,
So promise that you will be true,
You've taken my heart, love, and now I have none,
How can I help thinking of you.

ARE THE DAYS OF JOY GONE FOREVER.

Are the days of joy gone forever,
Was the dream too beautiful to last,
Will they not return to us, ah never,
In the mystic future deep and vast,
Must the hopes all fade and sadly perish,
Must my sighs be turned to bitter tears,
Like a tender dream the heart may cherish,
Must we roam apart thro' all the years?

CHORUS.
Are the days of joy gone forever,
Was the dream too beautiful to last,
Can we not recall the dream, ah never,
Call it back from out the joyous past.

UNDER THE ROSES.

Under the roses I hid my heart,
Deep in the grave where she's sleeping,
There did my joy and my love depart,
Leaving me lonely and weeping,
Day after day do I sigh for her,
Over the grave where she reposes,
After the sigh comes a bitter tear,
Falling to kiss the sweet roses.

CHORUS.
Under the roses I hid my heart,
Deep in the grave where she's sleeping,
There did my joy and my love depart,
Leaving me lonely and weeping.

SOME ONE WILL MISS ME WHEN I AM AWAY.

How pleasant it is to have some one to love us,
To think of us kindly wherever we go;
It makes the world brighter, like heaven above us,
It makes our hearts lighter and pleasure or woe,
I'm going away, from the heart that I cherished,
I'll wander mid strangers each long weary day,
Tho' long I shall linger, all love will not perish,
For some one will miss me while I am away.

CHORUS.
Some one will miss me as sadly I wander—
Yes some one will think of me each lonely day—
Kind, happy hearts in their anguish may ponder,
For "some one" will miss me while I am away.

I'LL BE WAITING FOR YOU AT THE GATE.

I'll be waiting for you at the gate, love,
When the sun sinks to rest in the sea,
When the twilight around whispers late, love,
Will you hasten, my darling, to see,
I can hear your footsteps in my fancied,
And my heart beats with sweetest delight,
And I long for your eyes' softest glances,
To make the world happy and bright.

CHORUS.
I'll be waiting for you at the gate, love,
When the sun sinks to rest in the sea,
When the twilight around whispers late, love,
I'll be watching and waiting for thee.

THE LOVE AND LIGHT OF HOME.

How oft the wanderer's heart turns back,
To those he left behind,
Tis then he knows and feels the lack,
Of mother's love so kind,
Tis then his heart is filled with sighs,
Wherever he may roam,
For then it is, he learns to prize
The love and light of home.

CHORUS.
How dear that home is to him then,
How dear it all he left;
He drops a tear for those so dear,
Of whom he is bereft.

Her Pretty Face Is Pictured in My Heart.

Like a summer cloud, she trips across the meadow,
And the daisy blossoms kiss her pretty feet,
While the sunbeams chase her merry little shadow,
Because she is so innocent and sweet;
The birds sing round the pathway where she's strayed,
And drive away each care that fain would startle,
Like an angel sweet from heaven here, delaying,
Her pretty face is pictured in my heart.

CHORUS.
She is sweeter than the bright-eyed little daisies,
And she is a little queen of grace and art,
Bringing sunlight to my life in golden masses,
Her pretty face is pictured in my heart.

FORGIVE ME LOVE AND SMILE AGAIN.

My heart was dear, the spell was broke,
The sad good bye was said by thee,
For bitter words in anger spoke,
Have made the world seem dark to me,
But now that years have come and gone,
Why should we linger still in pain,
Bright visions yet may wake the morn,
Forgive me love and smile again.

CHORUS.
Recall the words in anger spoke,
We'll mend the broken golden chain,
We will not say the spell is broke,
Forgive me love and smile again.

I KISSED YOU IN A DREAM.

I kissed you in a dream, last night,
Tho' you are far away;
My lonely heart once more grew light
With something sweet to say;
I told again the story old,
Our hearts grew free from pain;
And o'er the story was had told,
You kissed me back again.

CHORUS.
I kissed you in a dream, last night,
But now the dream is past;
When will it come again so bright,
In beauty that we last.

WHEN ROSES BLOOM OVER ME, DARLING.

When the roses bloom over me, darling,
By the streamlet led down in the dell,
Where we've heard the sweet song of the starling,
'Twas the music made me feel so well,
Will you shed one sad tear mid the roses,
Above me when I've gone to sleep;
Will you come where the one loved reposes,
And o'er my lone grave will you weep?

CHORUS.
When the roses bloom over me, darling,
When I'm laid in my grave by the stream,
Will you come to the call of the starling,
Will it be to your memory's dream.

HOW SWEET THE NAME OF MOTHER!

Song and Chorus.

Words and Music by

F. BELASCO.
(M. H. ROSENFELD.)
Author of "Hush Little Baby," etc.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in a descending sequence, while the left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The first two lines of the song are shown. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The lyrics are:
1. Oh, how sweet the dear old name of mother sounds to me, As I wander thro' the wea-ry
2. Ev-'ry night and ev-'ry day while drifting thro' the years, In my dreams I ev-er plainly

The last two lines of the song are shown. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The lyrics are:
day;
see, How it lightens my poor heart, and makes it glad and free.
Just the same old kind-ly face as in the days gone by.

Shedding sunshine o'er my lonely way.
Vanished now amid the vale of tears.

Ev'ry thought of care and sorrow flees just like a dream,
Naught is left me now in sorrow thro' each fading year,

And the lit - tle stars of Heav - en e - ven bright - er seem,
Bring - ing rec - o - lec - tions sad - ly with a fall - ing tear,

As they gently guide me o'er life's drear and restless stream, Oh, how sweet the name of mother sounds!
Save the mem'ry of that name I cherish ev - er dear, Oh, how sweet the name of mother sounds!

How Sweet the Name of Mother!

CHORUS.

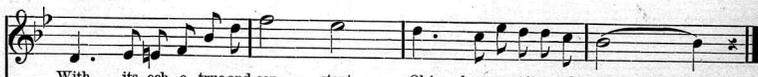

Sopr'o.
 Oh! how dear the name of mother, Soft - ly stealing sweet and free,

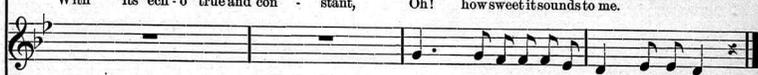

Alto.
 Oh! how dear the name of moth-er, Soft - ly stealing sweet and free,

Tenor.
 Oh! how dear the name of moth-er, Soft - ly stealing sweet and free,

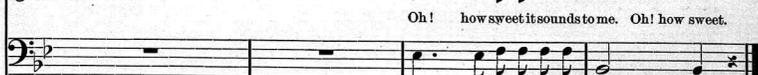

Bass.
 Oh! how dear the name of moth-er, Soft - ly stealing sweet and free,

Piano.

 With its ech-o true and con-stant, Oh! how sweet it sounds to me.

 Oh! how sweet.

 Oh! how sweet it sounds to me. Oh! how sweet.

 Oh! how sweet it sounds to me. Oh! how sweet.

How Sweet the Name of Mother!

INCOMPARABLY THE BEST—THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS—ENDORSED BY PRESS AND PROFESSION.

NATIONAL SCHOOL FOR PIANO-FORE.

BY W. F. SUDDS.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs, while for those who are compelled to become self-taught players, it will found the most satisfactory ever published. We will call attention briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing lessons, to be filled out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties than other works of the kind contain.
2. The exercises are more carefully graded, introducing the pupil to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanations, which are usually left for the teacher to give orally, are, as far as possible, written in detail.
3. The art of fingering, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.
4. It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and Thorough-bass, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-fore Methods.
5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this, too, is peculiar to the work.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials fully endorsing the above claims:

WHAT NEW ENGLAND SAYS:

THOS. P. Y. MAQUON, Bath, Me.
The "National School" is rightly named. From what I knew of your work in another department, "Athletic Games," I had reason to expect much in your new work, and my expectations are more than met. I find no reason to fault and such mastery treatment of the whole subject, that I can only say—it is just what we teachers, and our pupils, need. No instruction book that I am acquainted with, with so much to teach, or so clearly defined that they do entice. I hope it may meet the wishes of its merit.

JULIUS HICHBURG (Boston Conservatory of Music), Boston, Mass.
I find "National School" a useful and well-planned work, well adapted for its purpose and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish you all success.

The Pilot, Boston, Mass.
An exhaustive and valuable book.

S. SHELTER, New Haven, Conn.
Our teachers consider "National School" the best of all piano schools published in the United States.

G. H. KEMBALL, Manchester, N. H.
The publisher do not state enough for "National School" it meets a demand never so thoroughly supplied before.

F. A. FOWLER, New Haven, Conn.
I consider that "National School" has no rival among American publications.

A. S. BELLING, Fitchburg, Mass.
I can confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction book complete in all the details of piano-fore playing.

DR. LOUIS MAAS, Boston, Mass.
After a careful survey of "National School" I am very glad to tell you that under my notice. It is simple, comprehensive and yet exhaustive—containing everything that can be sought for in anything of the kind. I shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in my power.

WHAT THE MIDDLE STATES SAY:

ALBANY (N. Y.) Morning Express.
Destined to have a large sale.
MORSE & HANFORD, Middletown, N. Y.
Our teachers are well pleased with "National School."
Phila. (Pa.) Herald-Examiner.
An admirable and exhaustive work.

Harrisburg (Pa.) Independent.
Contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other book of the kind.
Geo. F. BISHOP, Philadelphia, Pa.
I find "National School" an excellent work. As a book for teachers of the piano-fore, I can strongly recommend it.

Haverhill, Mass., Boston, Pa.
I have been a teacher to Richardson's justly popular method, but hoped some time to see a method more complete in some respects and with clearer explanations to scholars of the many faults I find in the "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones: viz.: Entertaining and instructive details; remarks upon the proper use of the pedals; clear explanation of the various embellishments; latest studies of modern masters, Heller, Kohler, List, and others; the exercises upon accent and remarks upon vocal accompaniment; the excellent musical and biographical dictionary, and, by no means the least important, the fine treatise on harmony with its numerous examples.

JAS. N. BUCK, Philadelphia, Pa.
The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and the clearness wherewith all the rudimentary points have been treated, as well as the judgment displayed in the selection of the various studies, etc. I have nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing, besides the several dictionaries, and the short but adding treatise on harmony.

A. H. ETTINGER, Allegheny, Pa.
"National School" is a very thorough and minute work. It certainly contains everything that can be desired by teacher or pupil.
ALAN GIBBS, Philadelphia, Pa.
In every way I find "National School" the most practical work for that king of instruments—the piano—that has ever been brought to my notice, and I feel that I can only commend it to all who are in quest of a teacher, but also an encyclopedia, which I recommend most heartily to the profession.

A. H. ROBERTS, Philadelphia, Pa.
I have thoroughly examined "National School," and have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the best and most thorough instruction books I have seen. It embodies many new and original ideas in its work, which cannot fail to prove of great value.

JNO. R. SWENBY, Chester, Pa.
I think "National School" a grand success in every way.
JNO. P. DOBNERST, Chester, Pa.
"National School" is certainly the best piano instruction ever published in this country.
G. W. SHEPHERD, ARTON, N. Y.
I consider "National School" worth double that of any piano school I have ever seen.

6. It is the only piano school which treats, at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much-abused, "loud pedal." On this subject alone, it is far superior to any other work of the kind.

7. We find among its contents, the subject of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.

8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable repertoire of piano music, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Rubinstein, Morzkowski and others, with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performance of each.

9. And last but not least, is included a dictionary of music, with proper pronunciation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent ancient and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" opens to the student the shortest and best possible road to proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and recognized talent of the editor, as evinced in former works. And after a glance at the foregoing, it is almost superfluous to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

AND ALSO:

W. W. GILCHRIST, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is a most excellent and progressive work for the piano student, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of the many good points.
MARGA M. WARNER, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work, having the different grades of study well systematized and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous for the student.

LOUIS BARNES, New York.
I have carefully examined "National School" and find it a thorough work, superior to any method published.
ARNA BELLEFLOU, Bistraville, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work. It will give me pleasure to recommend it.

DUDLEY BUCK, Brooklyn, N. Y.
I have examined "National School" and am glad to say that I think you have compiled a good work, covering all essential points of piano-playing, and which, properly made use of, cannot fail to produce good players. I trust that you will be rewarded for the labor and pains you have evidently taken.

Music and Drama, New York.
"National School" will prove an exceedingly useful work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form, and most of the studies and pieces are such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

WM. H. SHERB, Wheeling, W. Va.
I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.
Wheeler (W. Va.) Register.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.
S. S. DYER, Washington, D. C.
I think "National School" a very complete work. It contains all the great requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progressive comprehensiveness in a word, completeness; leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

WHAT THE WESTERN STATES SAY:

J. R. CAMERON, Indianapolis, Ind.
I think "National School" supplies long-felt wants. All the best of first class. Sarasento (Cal.) Daily Record.
This book is all that is claimed for it.
Chicago (Ill.) Inter-Ocean.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

R. A. KIRBY, Knoxville, Ill.
I am highly pleased with "National School." I think it one of the most complete works on the subject that I have used. I shall adopt it with my pupils.

H. J. VOTZNER, Cleveland, O.
"National School" I find to be a most excellent work. I have used it for some time, and find it to be a very good method of the kind, that I am sure will be of great benefit to the student.

A. L. BARBOUR & CO., San Francisco, Cal.
"National School" is a fine work.
I. G. LOOPER, La Crosse, Wis.
"National School" is certainly a very fine work, and pronounced so by all who have seen it.

HERBERT SAGE, Lapeer, Mich.
The use of "National School" should be international, for it has more features of merit than any other similar work. Its illustrations and explanations are a great assistance to the teacher and its many other good things are all appreciated. It is the best.

Mrs. M. W. KIRBY, Plymouth, Ind.
I have examined your "National School," and pronounce it an excellent work.
G. W. WARREN, Evansville, Ind.
"National School" is, without doubt, one of the most common-sense instructors. I wish you the success the merit of the book deserve.

WILL E. THORNTON, the popular song writer, East Liverpool, Ohio.
I am very much pleased with "National School." It shows careful work of a thorough musician. I believe it will become a standard.

J. H. LESLIE, Ravenna, Ohio.
"National School" is the best book of its class I have ever examined—best for beginners, best for intermediate, best for advanced pupils. It is an instruction book, an encyclopedia, a treasury and a storehouse of music. It has no superior and is the work of a mastery with me.
Our pianist, Mrs. Perry, agrees with me.

C. J. WHITNEY, Detroit, Mich.
"Sudds' Piano Method" is the best work of the kind I have ever seen and it will certainly become popular.

CANADA'S VERDICT.

CARL MATHEWS, Toronto, Ontario.
I can truly say that I see much to admire in your "National School." I think it the best school of the kind, and it will certainly have a very large sale. All the more prominent teachers in Canada and the United States.
LONDON (Ont.) Catholic Record.
It will be found the most valuable aid ever published.
