INCOMPARABLY THE BEST—THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS—ENDORSED BY PRESS AND PROFESSION.

NATIONAL SCHOOL FOR THE PIANO-FORTE.

BY W. F. SUDDS.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs, write for those who are compelled to become self-taught players. It will be found the most reliable ever published. We would call attention briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing lessons, to be filled out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties than other works of the kind contain.
2. The exercises are more carefully graded, introducing the pupil to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanations, which are usually left for the teacher to give orally, are, as far as possible, written in detail.
3. The art of fingering, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.
4. It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and Through-bass, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-forte Methods.
5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this, too, is peculiar to the work.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials fully endorsing the above claims:

WHAT NEW ENGLAND SAYS:

TROOP, P. I. MAORON, Bath, Me.
The "National School" is rightly named. From what I know of your work in another department, "Anthem Gems," I had reason to expect much in your new work, and my expectations are more than met. I find so many new features and such masterly treatment of the whole subject, that I can only say—It is just what teachers and our pupils need. No instruction book that I am acquainted with embraces so much, or so clearly, nearly defines what they do embrace. I hope it may meet success in merit.

JULIUS BICHERBERG (Boston Conservatory of Music), Boston, Mass.
I find "National School" a useful and well-planned work, very complete for its purpose and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish you all success.

The Pilot, Boston, Mass.
An exhaustive and valuable book.
S. SHELLS, New Haven, Conn.
Our teachers consider "National School" the best of all piano schools published in the United States.
O. H. KEMBALL, Manchester, N. H.
The publishers do not claim enough for "National School." It meets a demand never so thoroughly supplied before.

E. A. FORTYEN, New Haven, Conn.
I consider that "National School" has no rival among American publications.
A. S. BRIDGES, Fitchburg, Mass.
I can confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction book complete in all the details of piano-forte playing.

DR. LOUIS MAAS, Boston, Mass.
After a careful survey of "National School," I have no hesitation in saying that I think it one of the very best books of that class ever published. It has been brought under my notice. It is simple, comprehensive and yet exhaustive—contains everything that can be sought for in anything of the kind. It shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in my power.

WHAT THE MIDDLE STATES SAY:

Albany (N. Y.) Morning Express.
Destined to have a large sale.
MORSE & HARRISON, Middletown, N. Y.
Our teachers are well pleased with "National School."
Phila. (Pa.) Chronicle-Herald.
An admirable and exhaustive work.
Harrisburg (Pa.) Independent.
Contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other book of the kind.

Geo. F. REMOR, Philadelphia, Pa.
I find "National School" an excellent work. As a book for teachers of the piano-forte, I can strongly recommend it.

HENRY ROBERTS, Easton, Pa.
I have been very partial to Richardson's justly popular method, but hoped some time to see a method more complete in some respects and with clearer explanations to schools of many pupils. I find that "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones, viz.: Retaining and instructive details; remarks upon the proper method of teaching; the explanation of various embellishments; latest studies of modern masters, Heller, Kohler, List, and others; the exercises upon accent and touch; the vocal accompaniment; the excellent musical and biographical dictionary; the fine treatise on harmony with its numerous examples.

JAN N. BUCK, Philadelphia, Pa.
The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and the clearness wherewith all the rudimentary points have been therein set forth, as well as the judgment displayed in the retention of the various studies, etc. I have nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing lessons, the several dictionaries, and the short but satisfying treatise on harmony.

A. H. DITZINGER, Allentown, Pa.
"National School" is a very thorough and complete work. It certainly contains everything that can be desired by teacher or pupil.

ADAM GEHRL, Philadelphia, Pa.
In every way I find "National School" the most practical work for that kind of instrument—the piano—that has ever been brought to my notice, and I feel that I can say confidently, and without pre-emption, that it is not only a thorough work, but also, very original, and I think it can recommend most heartily to the profession.

A. H. ROSENWITZ, Philadelphia, Pa.
I have thoroughly examined "National School" and have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the best and most thorough instruction I have seen. Mr. Suds embodies many new and original ideas in his work which cannot fail to prove of great value.

JNO. B. SWENEY, Chester, Pa.
I think "National School" a grand success in every way.

JNO. P. DOUGHERTY, Chester, Pa.
"National School" is certainly the best instruction ever published in this country.

W. G. SHEPHERD, Akron, N. Y.
I consider "National School" worth double that of any piano school I have ever seen.

6. It is the only piano school which treats, at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much-abused "loud pedal." On this subject alone, the work is of incalculable value to the young student.
7. We find among its contents, the subject of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.
8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable repertoire of piano music, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Chopin, Morceaux and others, with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performance of each.
9. And last, but not least, is included a dictionary of music, with proper explanation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent ancient and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" opens to the student the shortest and best possible road to proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and recognized talent of the editor, as evinced in former works. And after a glance at its foreword, it is almost superfluous to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

W. W. GILCHRIST, Philadelphia, Pa.

"National School" is a most excellent and progressive work for the piano student, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points, having the different grades of study well systematized and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous.

LOUIS REMOR, New York.
National School is an admirable work, having the different grades of study well systematized and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous.

DUDLEY BUCK, Brooklyn, N. Y.
I have examined "National School" and am glad to say that I think you have compiled a good work, covering all essential points of piano-playing, and which, properly made use of, cannot fail to produce good players. I trust that you will be rewarded for the labor and pains you have evidently taken.

Music and Drama, New York.
"National School" will prove an exceedingly useful work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form; and most of the studies and pieces are such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

WM. H. SMITH, Wheeling, W. Va.
I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

S. S. BRYER, (W. Va.) Register.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

S. S. BRYER, Washington, D. C.
I think "National School" a very complete work. It contains all the great requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progression, comprehensiveness, in a several compasses—leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

WHAT THE WESTERN STATES SAY:

W. S. B. MATHEWS, Chicago, Ill.
I have examined your "National School" for the Piano, and I am glad to say, and regard it as by far the most comprehensive work of the kind yet issued. It cannot but do good wherever it is used. I hope it may meet the success it deserves.

J. B. CAMPBELL, Indianapolis, Ind.
I think "National School" supplies a long-felt want. All teachers pronounce it

A valuable book of instruction and reference.

SA. A. KENZER, Knoxville, Ill.
I am highly pleased with "National School." I think it one of the most complete works on piano technique that I have read. I shall adopt it with my pupils.

"National School" I find to be a most excellent work. It has so many advantages over every method of the kind, that it cannot fail to be successful.

A. L. RANSFORD & Co., San Francisco, Cal.
"National School" is a fine work.

G. G. LOOMIS, La Crosse, Wis.
"National School" is certainly a very fine work, and pronounced so by all who have seen it.

HENRIETTA SAGE, Lapeer, Mich.
The use of "National School" should be inter-national, for it has more features of merit than any other similar work. Its illustrations and explanations are a great assistance to the teacher and in many other good things are all appreciated. It is the best.

Mrs. M. W. KESNEY, Plymouth, Ind.
I have examined your "National School," and pronounce it an excellent work.

G. W. WARREN, Evansville, Ind.
"National School" is, without doubt, one of the most common-sense instructors. I wish you the success the merits of the book deserve.

WILL L. THURGOOD, the popular song-writer, East Liverpool, Ohio.
I have examined your "National School." It shows careful work of a thorough musician. I believe it will become a standard.

J. H. LESTER, Fayetteville, Ohio.
"National School" is the best book of the class I have ever examined—best for beginners, best for intermediate, best for advanced pupils. It is an instruction book, an encyclopedia, a history and geography combined in one. It has no superior and the work of a mastery musician. Our pianist, Mrs. Perry, agrees with me.

G. J. WATSON, Detroit, Mich.
Suds' "Piano Method" is the best work of the kind we ever saw and it will certainly become popular.

CANADA'S VERDICT.

GARY MATHEWS, Toronto, Ontario.
I can truly say that I see much to admire in your "National School." It is the best book of its kind, and it will certainly have a very large sale amongst the most prominent teachers in Canada and the United States.

G. J. WATSON, Detroit, Mich.
I think "National School" supplies a long-felt want. All teachers pronounce it
