dar he sit till he eat his fill, An he stuffed him - self right just as black as a black can be, An de poor white man, oh he looks at you, den he looks at me, Den he flies right down from de up to de bill, And den he laughed at de whip-poor-will; Caw! caw! caw!
hates you and me, So Mis - ter coon, please, O let me free; Caw! caw! caw!
old pine - tree, And den he laugh wid a he, he, he: Caw! caw! caw!
Little faster.
Den a husk, old La - dy shake down; De Mil - ler has gone to de Little faster.
mill, Den a sweep dat floor dere's danc - ing, Oh come climb up to the hill, Come and bring your mother and your aun - ty, And crowd dem nig-gers to de
