DON'T PUT THE POOR WORKINGMAN DOWN.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY CHORUS.

BOBBY NEWCOMB.

Let cap-i-tal shake hands with la-bor, Let the poor have the bread that they earn,

For sure-ly they need ev-'ry pen-ny, Is a les-son quite ea-sy to learn.
Remember, die poor love their children,
So give them a smile not a frown,
Love, and not vice, be your motto,
Oh! don't put the poor workin' man down.

This is the title of the greatest motto song ever published in America. Written and composed by Bobby Newcomb. Will be sung in almost every theatre in the land. Price, 30 cents per copy.

GET A WIFE, YOUNG MAN.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY CHORUS.

J. P. SKELLEY.

Get a wife, young man, Get a wife, young man, And change your way of life young man,

Get a wife, young man, Got a wife, young man, A dar-ling witch-ing wife.
If you want to be contented,
If you want a life o' joy,
If you want to dance upon your knee
A bouncing baby boy.
If you want to spend your fortune
All for silks and bonnets new,
If you have such inclinations
Now I'll tell you what to do.

The above is a very pretty comic song with a remarkably pleasing melody, suitable for the parlor or stage. If you want the sweetest kisses, or want to be a christian and forget your evil ways, be sure and buy a copy of Get a Wife, Young Man. Sung nightly by acro-comic artists with wonderful success. Price, 30 cents per copy.

JUST ONE SWEET KISS.

Words by S. N. MITCHELL.

Music by H. P. DANKS.

Just one sweet kiss be-fore we part, 'Tis all I ask of thee,

'Twill stamp your im-age on my heart And bring new life to me.

Everybody who is able to play upon the piano is certainly acquainted with the reputation of H. P. Danks as a song writer. We all remember his "Silver Threads Among the Gold." This polka song promises to be another addition to his successful career. In the first place it gives a chance to the singer to show ability—in singing a beautiful song in polka time; secondly, it affords wonderful facility for singing rapidly and properly reading at sight. Price, 30 cents.

If your regular music dealer cannot supply you with the above music, send direct to the publisher.

DARLING LITTLE JESSIE LEE.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

THOS. P. WESTENDORF.

1. Where the hap-py birds sing sweet - est, Down be-side the laugh-ing stream,
2. When the gold - en sun - light fades - ing, Brings a - gain the hour to meet,

Where the brightest flow'rs are growing, Fondly will she then be waiting,
Making life a fairy dream, With a happy smile to greet,
Dwells a little blue-eyed maiden, And we'll wander through the meadow,
Who is very dear to me, As we whisper words of love,
Morning, noon and night I'm dreaming, And her little eyes will sparkle
Of my darling Jessie Lee. Brighter than the stars above.

A very neat little love-song, full of loving sentiments, and surely cannot fail to find thousands of admirers. It is dedicated to the Railroad Quartette, of Columbus, O. Price, 30 cents per copy.

PRETTY LITTLE BLUE-EYED STRANGER.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

BOBBY NEWCOMB.

When the summer breeze was blowing O'er the land and far a - cross the sea,

I met a lit - tle blue-eyed stran - ger, As pret - ty as can be.

Bobby Newcomb's songs rank among the most popular in America. Orders for 456 copies of the above song were received in advance of publication. Every lover of a neat and pleasing song should not fail to procure a copy. Price, 30 cts.

MY JERUSHA JANE.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

THOS. P. WESTENDORF.

The moon was bright - ly shin - ing A - way up in the 'sky

As we walked home to - geth - er, Je - ru - saly Jane and I.

A very fine comic song, full of good points calculated to produce laughter and applause. The melody is good, and the arrangement easy, so that difficulty will be experienced in playing the same. Price, 30 cents per copy.
