DON'T PUT THE POOR WORKINGMAN DOWN.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

BOBBY NEWCOMB.

Let cap-i-tal shake hands with la-bor, Let the poor have the bread that they earn.

For sure-ly they need ev-'ry pen-ny, Is a lee-son quite eas-y to learn.

Remember the poor love their children,
So give them a smile and a frown.
Live, and let live, be your motto,
Oh! don't put the poor workingman down.

This is the title of the greatest motto song ever published in America. Written and composed by Bobby Newcomb. Will be sung in almost every theatre in the land. Price, 30 cents per copy.

GET A WIFE, YOUNG MAN.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

J. P. SKELLY.

Get a wife, young man, Get a wise young man, And change your way of life young man,

Get a wife, young man, Get a wife, young man, A dar-ling, witch-ing wife.
If you want to be contented, If you want to spend your fortune
All for silks and bonnets new, If you have such inclinations
If you want to dance upon your knee, Now I'll tell you what to do,
A bouncing baby boy.

The above is a very pretty come song with a remarkably pleasing melody, suitable for the parlor or stage. If you want the sweetest kisses, or want to be a Christian and forget your evil ways, be sure and buy a copy of "Get a Wife, Young Man." This polka gives a chance to the singer to show ability—in singing a beautiful song in polka time; secondly, it affords wonderful facility for singing rapidly and properly reading at sight. Price, 30 cents per copy.

JUST ONE SWEET KISS.

Words by S. N. MITCHELL.

Music by H. P. DANKS.

Just one sweet kiss be-fore we part, 'Tis all I 'ask' of thee,

'Twill stamp your im-age on my heart And bring new life to me.

Everybody who is able to play upon the piano is certainly acquainted with the reputation of H. P. Danks as a song writer. We all remember his "Sister Threads Among the Gold." This polka song promises to be another addition to his successful gems. In the first place it gives a chance to the singer to show ability—in singing a beautiful song in polka time; secondly, it affords wonderful facility for singing rapidly and properly reading at sight. Price, 30 cents per copy.

If your regular music dealer cannot supply you with the above music, send direct to the publisher.

DARLING LITTLE JESSIE LEE.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

THOS. P. WESTENDORF.

1. Where the hap-py birds sing sweet-est, Down be-side the laugh-ing stream,
2. When the gold-en sun-light fall-sing, Bring-a-gain the hour to meet,
Where the bright-est flow-ers are growing, Fondly will she then be waiting,
Making life a fairy dream, With a happy smile to greet,
Dwell's a little blue-eyed maiden, And I'll wander through the meadow,
Who is very dear to me, As we whisper words of love,
Morning, noon and night I'm dreaming, Of my darling Jessie Lee. Brighter than the stars above.

A very neat little love-song, full of loving sentiments, and surely cannot fail to find thousands of admirers. It is dedicated to the Railroad Quartette, of Columbus, O. Price, 30 cents per copy.

PRETTY LITTLE BLUE-EYED STRANGER.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

BOBBY NEWCOMB.

When the summer breeze was blowing O'er the land and far a-cross the sea,

I met a lit-tle blue-eyed stran-ger, As pret-ty as can be.

Bobby Newcomb's songs rank among the most popular in America. Orders for 456 copies of the above song were received in advance of publication. Every lover of a neat and pleasing song should not fail to procure a copy. Price, 30 cts.

The moon was bright-ly shin-ing A-way up in the 'sky
