RECENT SONG SUCCESSES.

WHEN LOVES SWEET DREAM IS O'ER, 40c
Ballad, by Wm. B. Gray.

The latest from this well-known writer's pen, and bound to out-rival his many successes.

DAR'S A WATERMELON SPOILIN' DOWN AT JOHNSON'S, 40c
Comic, by J. W. Wheeler.

A genuine darkey song with lots of "go" in it.

A KISS WAS THE CAUSE OF IT ALL, 40c
Sentimental, by Gussie L. Davis.

Mr. Davis' reputation as a song writer is so well established, that the only comment necessary is that this is as good as his best.

HOW DO YOU DO, MR. McCUE? 40c
Comic, by Wm. Beebe.

A rollicking Irish song, with all the elements of popularity necessary to make it a winner.

GERALDINE, 40c
Ballad, by A. N. LaBrie.

Another "O Promise Me," and decidedly the prettiest ballad it has been our pleasure to hear for some time.

A LITTLE PIECE OF STRING AROUND HIS NECK, 40c
Topical song, by Philander Johnson.

Introduced by Tony Pastor, Lew Dockstader, Kittie Gilmore, and many others. Funnier than the funniest.

THE POPULAR MAN ABOUT TOWN, 40c
Character Waltz Song, by G. L. Spaulding.

Waltz Songs are always in demand, and this new one by the author-composer of "My Mary Green" is sure to become a universal favorite.

WHAT WON'T WE DO FOR LOVE? 40c
Waltz Song, by Geo. M. Cohan.

A very novel and original idea, expressed in beautiful words and catchy music by the author of "VENUS, MY SHINING LOVE."

MOTHER IS MY BEST GIRL NOW, 40c
Home Song, by John McCale.

A touching story that appeals to everyone, and Mr. McCale has surpassed himself in this, his best effort.

SINCE MY BROTHER GOT A JOB IN UNION SQUARE, 40c
Character Song, by Wm. B. Gray.

There have been many so-called "tough songs" this season, but none to equal this. For amateur or professional.

THERE WAS NO BRIDEGROOM THERE, 40c
Pathetic Waltz Song, by G. L. Spaulding.

"The wedding feast was ready all the friends assembled there,
And every one was eager to congratulate the pair."
Rich in story, rare in melody.

THE BELLE OF THE BOULEVARD, 40c
March Song, by Geo. M. Cohan.

The dash and spirit of this song, with its up-to-date words and splendid two-step music, makes it an assured success.

PRETTY EYES OF BONNIE BLUE, 40c
By the late Arthur West.

Written just before his death, and conceded to be by all odds, his prettiest song.

TELL ME OF MY OLD SWEETHEART, 40c
Sentimental Song, by J. P. Skelly.

A very pretty story and pleasing waltz melody, written in Mr. Skelly's inimitable style. Especially good for tenor.

DAISY, BLOOMERS, WHEEL AND ALL, 40c
Comic Song, by Chas. Shackford.

No portfolio is complete without a bicycle song, and this is the funniest and brightest of them all. To hear it is to like it.

SWEET ANTOINETTE, 40c
Ballad with Refrain, by Wm. B. Gray.

One of the sweetest songs in our catalogue. Sung by all the leading tenors, and always received with applause.

BABY HAS GONE TO SLEEP, 40c
Pathetic Song, by Jos. Flynn.

A beautiful story, blended to a sympathetic melody.

T'WAS A SAD TRIP COMING BACK, 40c
Comic, by Gussie L. Davis.

Full of unusually good humor. A positive cure for the blues.

JESSIE OF SWEET ABERDEEN, 40c
Sentimental, by Chas. Graham.

Nothing since "Scotch Lassie Jean," has appealed to us so strongly as this delightful song of the same order.

BLACK BALLED IN THE LIME KILN CLUB, 40c
Comic Negro Song, by Gussie L. Davis.

An excruciatingly funny darkey song, as sung by George Primrose, Lew Dockstader, Carroll Johnson, Etc.
