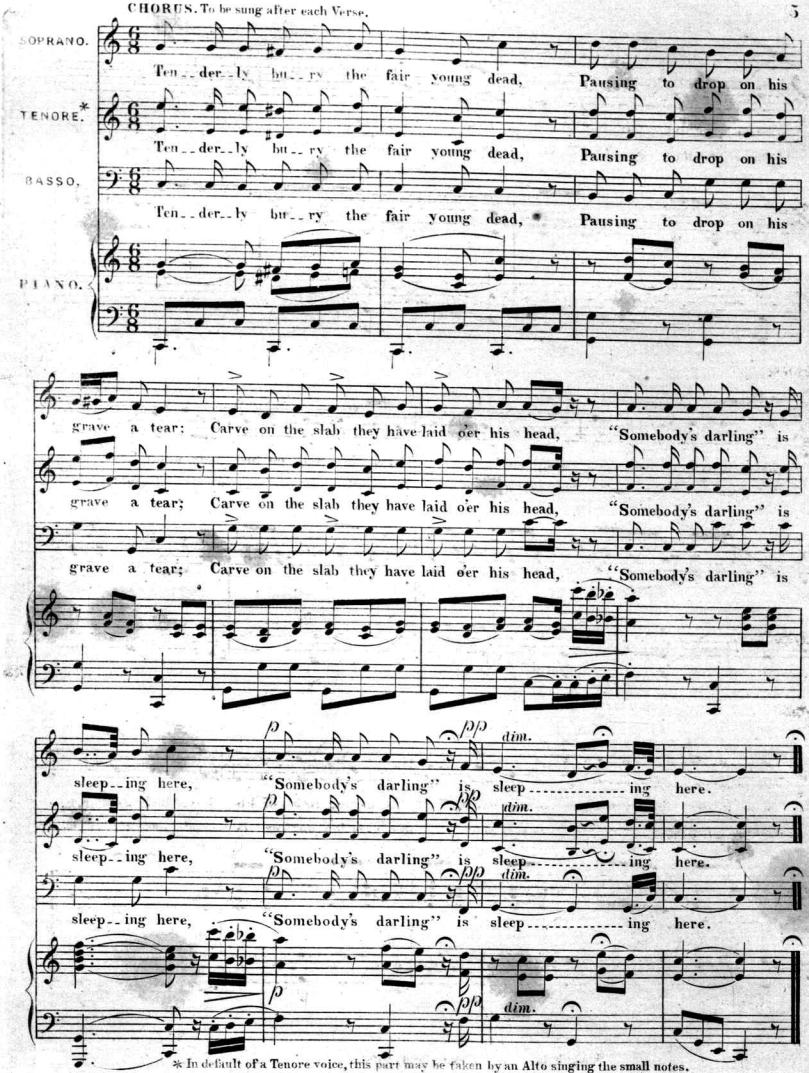
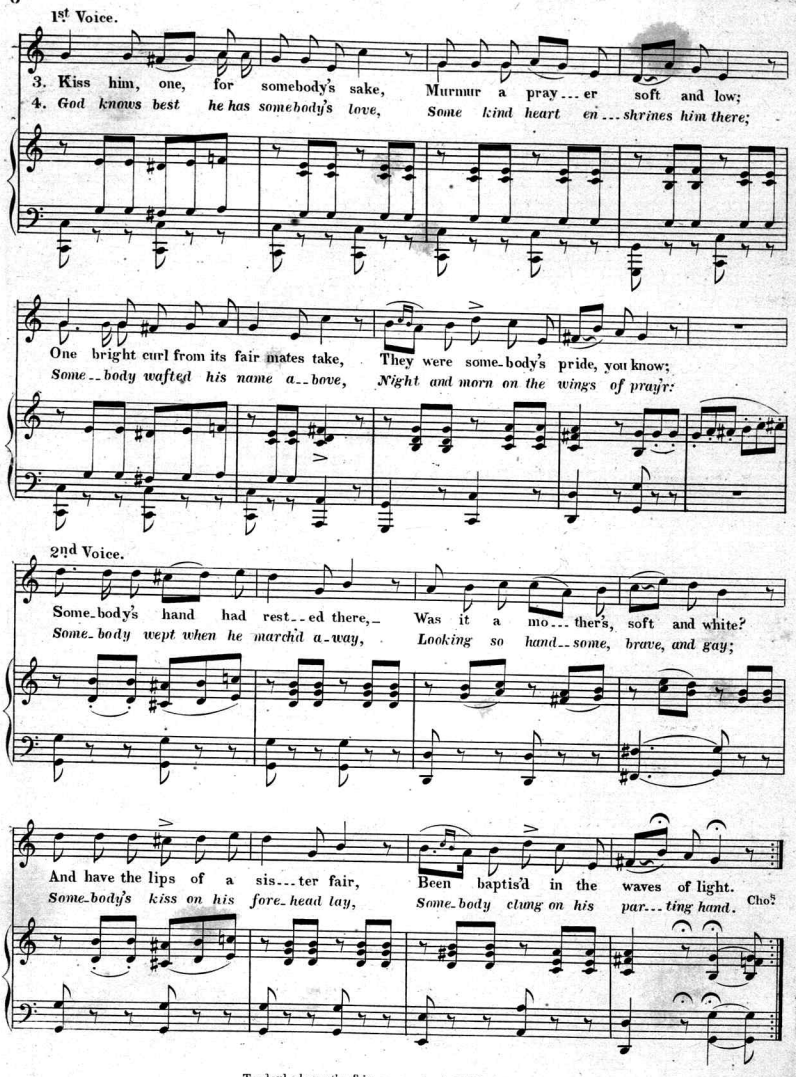
CHORUS. To be sung after each Verse.



* In default of a Tenore voice, this part may be taken by an Alto singing the small notes.



1st Voice.
3. Kiss him, one, for somebody's sake, Murmur a pray---er soft and low;
4. God knows best he has somebody's love, Some kind heart en---shrines him there;
One bright curl from its fair mates take, They were some-body's pride, you know;
Some--body wafted his name a--bove, Night and morn on the wings of pray'r:
2nd Voice.
Some-body's hand had rest--ed there,- Was it a mo---ther's, soft and white?
Some-body wept when he marchd a-way, Looking so hand--some, brave, and gay;
And have the lips of a sis---ter fair, Been baptis'd in the waves of light.
Some-body's kiss on his fore-head lay, Some-body clung on his par---ting hand.
