Dad and Mam are sleeping
On their peaceful bed,
Dreaming of the things
The folks in meeting said,
"Love ye one another!"
Ministers recite;
Bless me! don't we do it—
Sparking Sunday night?

One arm with gentle pressure
Lingers round her waist,
You squeeze her dimpled hand,
Her pouting lips you taste;
She freely slaps your face,
But more in love than spite;
Oh! thunder! ain't it pleasant
Sparking Sunday night!

But hark! the clock is striking—
It is two o'clock I swum!
As sure as I'm a sinner,
The time to go has come;
You ask with spiteful accents,
If "that old clock is right,"
And wonder if it ever
Sparked on a Sunday night!

One, two, three sweet kisses,
Four, five, six, you hook—
But thinking that you rob her,
Give back those you took;
Then as for home you hurry,
From the fair one's side,
Don't you wish each day was
Only Sunday night!
