3. But many a sad and patient care,
And many a tender sorrow
Have marked those features, once so fair,
With many an anxious furrow:
To yonder church-yard thrice we've gone,
Through lane, so still and grassy,
And borne and laid away our dead,
Since Mary was a lassie.

4. And so you see I've grown to love
The wrinkles more than roses;
Earth's winter flowers are sweeter far
Than all springs dewy posies:
They'll carry us through yonder lane
That looks so still and grassy,
Adown the lane I used to go
When Mary was a lassie.
