sought to find con - tent - ment in her smile I though she spoke in voice both soft and low I fan - cied I had found it for a while, But fan - cy quick - ly fled and I on - ly thought of that sweet long a - go When you were here with me and I dream'd of you in - stead While in my dream I call'd to you and said:
fan - cied I could see Your sweet face in the fire - light pleading - ly.
Chorus.
For me there's just one dear - - ie Why do you stay a - way? . . . Without you life seems drea - - ry Drifting from day to day; . . . Your smile was al - ways cheer - - y With you the skies were blue, ... For me there's just one dear - - ie, Just one and that one's you. . . .

WHEN THE SUNSHINE IN YOUR HEART TURNS NIGHT-TIME INTO DAY.
