With pret - ty curls of au - burn hue None Ad - mired by all her sex, and men, What They could not tell the rea - son why I with her could com - pare. I saw her was I then to do? I court - ed changed my lot, you see. But af - ter in her child - ish play, So gay, so full of her with wild de - light, Love's feel - ings ev - er I had made my bed To lie in it for life I said that in some fu - ture rife To keep the bliss of heav'n in life I blessed the day that I had day I'd make that girl my wife. sight And make that girl my wife.

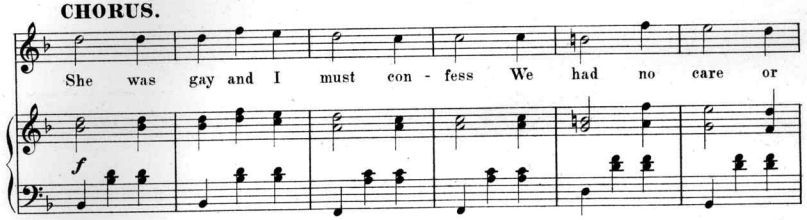
wed The girl I made my wife.

CHORUS.



She was gay and I must con - fess We had no care or f strife And nev - er will I cease to bless The girl I made my wife.

Mother Mine.
