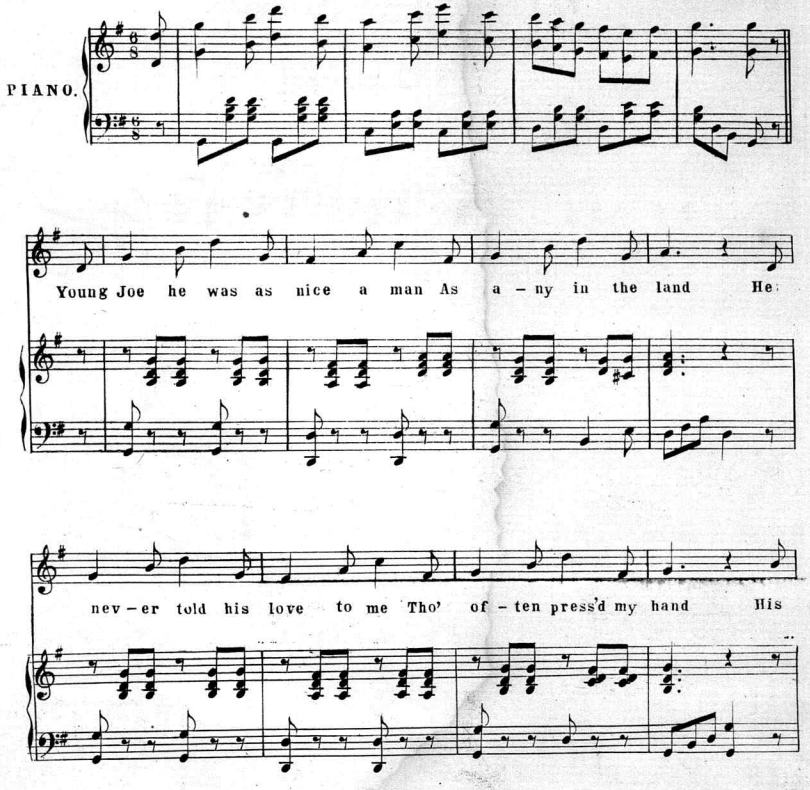
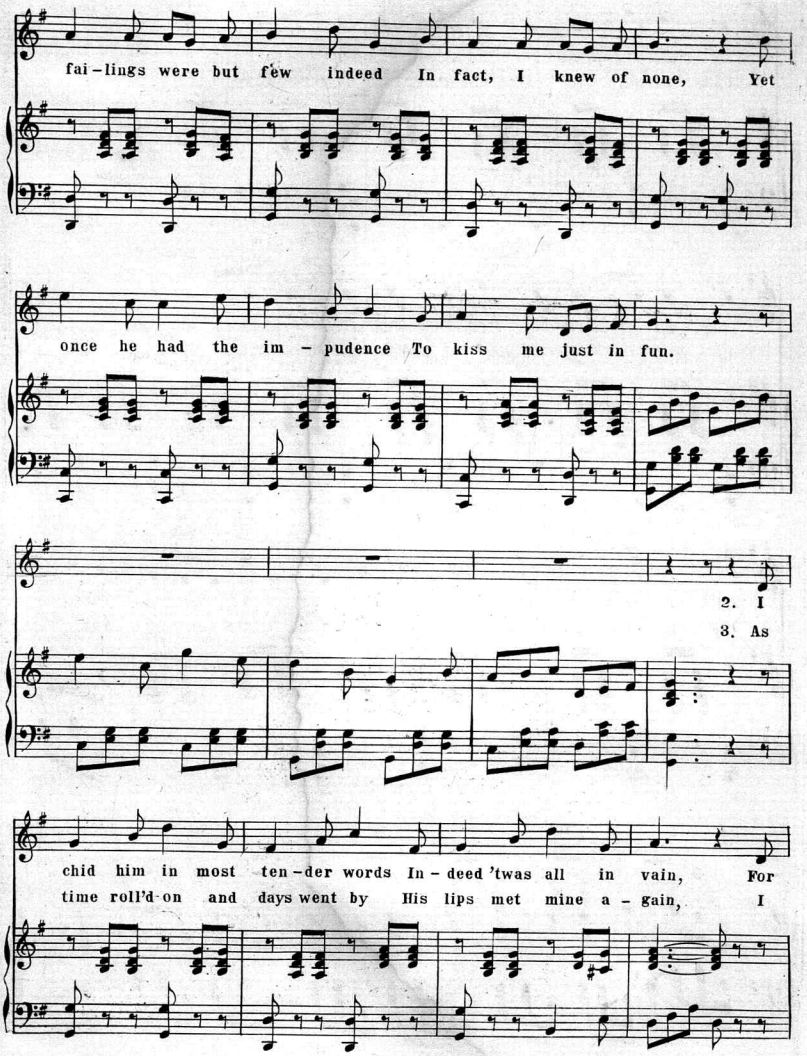
KISSING IN FUN.

Words by Sep: WINNER

T. HARRIS.



Entered according to Act of Congress A.D. 1864 by L. Meyer, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Eastern district of Penn.ª



fai-lings were but few indeed In fact, I knew of none, Yet once he had the im - pudence To kiss me just in fun.
2. I
3. As chid him in most ten-der words In - deed 'twas all in vain, For time roll'd on and days went by His lips met mine a - gain, I as he begg'd my par – don then, He kiss'd me o'er a – gain, I half forgot to chide him then, I knew 'twould be in vain; Now tore myself from his embrace And strove his grasp to shun But la – dies fair and maidens shy, Take my ad – vice as one, Let with a kind a – po – – lo-gy He said 'twas all in fun.

lov – ers kiss not on the sly Un – less you're fond of fun.
