MC GUFFIN'S WOODEN LEG.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words by JAMES LYNCH.

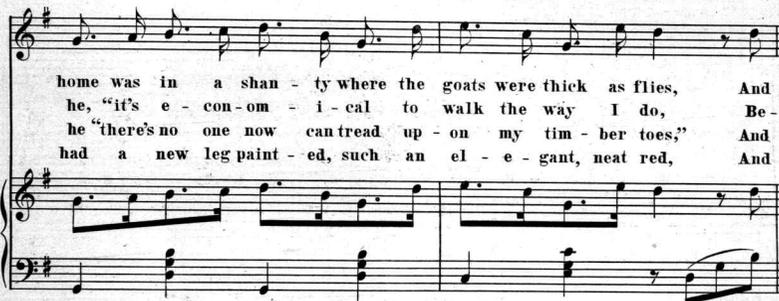

Music by JOHN KELLY.

Moderato.

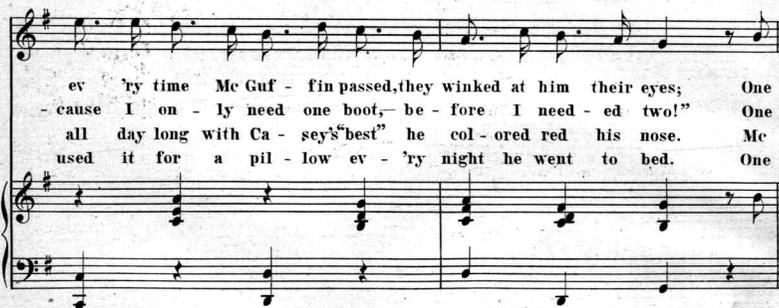

1. Mc Guf - fin lived in Mack - relville, a man of great renown, He
 2. Mc Guf - fin soon was on his feet, as live - ly as a flea, And
 3. Mc Guf - fin stump'd it round the town, as hap - py as a clam, He 4. Mc Guf - fin when he did a - wake, soon from his shan - ty came, The used to drive a splen-did cart to ped - dle round the town; His ev - 'ry where that leg would go, Mc Guf - fin he would be! Says skipp'd a - long the pavement with a bang and with a slam; Says chil - dren called him "stump-y," which, of course was not his name. He home was in a shan - ty where the goats were thick as flies, And he, "it's e - con - om - i - cal to walk the way I do, Be - he "there's no one now can tread up - on my tim - ber toes," And had a new leg paint - ed, such an el - e - gant, neat red, And ev 'ry time Mc Guf - fin passed, they winked at him their eyes; One

 - cause I on - ly need one boot, - be - fore I need - ed two!" One all day long with Ca - sey's "best" he col - ored red his nose. Mc used it for a pil - low ev - 'ry night he went to bed. One morn - ing old Mc Guf - fin he got full of Ca - sey's "best," To night he came home with his skin stuff'd full, as oft be - fore, The Guf - fin's wife she chanc'd one morn, to want some kind - ling wood, She night he laid down on the rocks, to view the stars a - bove, The nav - i - gate a - long the street he stag - ger'd East and West; So geese they cack - led, and the don - key he set up a roar; He spied Mc Guf - fin's wood - en leg that in the cor - ner stood; She stu - dy of as - tron - o - my was one he al - ways loved; To ly - ing down a - cross the tracks, he would - n't stir a peg, Till yell'd at Mrs Mc Guf - fin for to send the "growl - er" out, And chopp'd it up in lit - tle bits, which made Mc Guf - fin roar, He raise him up next morn - ing then a friend he had to beg, The soon a bob - tail car came by and struck Mc Guf - fin's leg! tak - ing off his wood - en leg, he knock'd her all a - bout! riz - up and he hopped a - bout, his hair he pulled and tore!

 Bil - ly goats had made a meal off old Mc Guf - fin's leg!

CHORUS.

Up jumped Mc Guf - fin with a yell, yell, yell! What Down in the cor - ner then he fell, fell, fell! Poor Bang! went the stove, the crock - er - y he broke! A Wild old Mc Guf - fin, how he swore, swore, swore! Down

struck Mc Guf - fin he could ne - ver tell! But Mrs Mc Guf - fin she did yell, yell, yell! She "Cop - per" came and put his head in soak; But he was plant - ed on his shan - ty floor! Says where his leg it ought to be they soon strapp'd on a peg, And stood a - bove Mc Guf - fin, till for mer - cy he did beg, And when be - fore Judge Duf - fy, he be - gan to coax and beg, Ten he "I'll to the black - smith go, and get an i - ron peg, I'll all the neigh - bors they admired Mc Guf - fin's wood - en leg! Up o'er his co - coa - nut she split Mc Guf - fin's wood - en leg! Down dol - lars was the fine it cost, Mc Guf - fin's wood - en leg! Bang! fool the goats and choke them with Mc Guf - fin's wood - en leg!" Wild Guf - fin's wood - en leg!

 Guf - fin's wood - en leg!
 Guf - fin's wood - en leg!
 Guf - fin's wood - en leg!"
