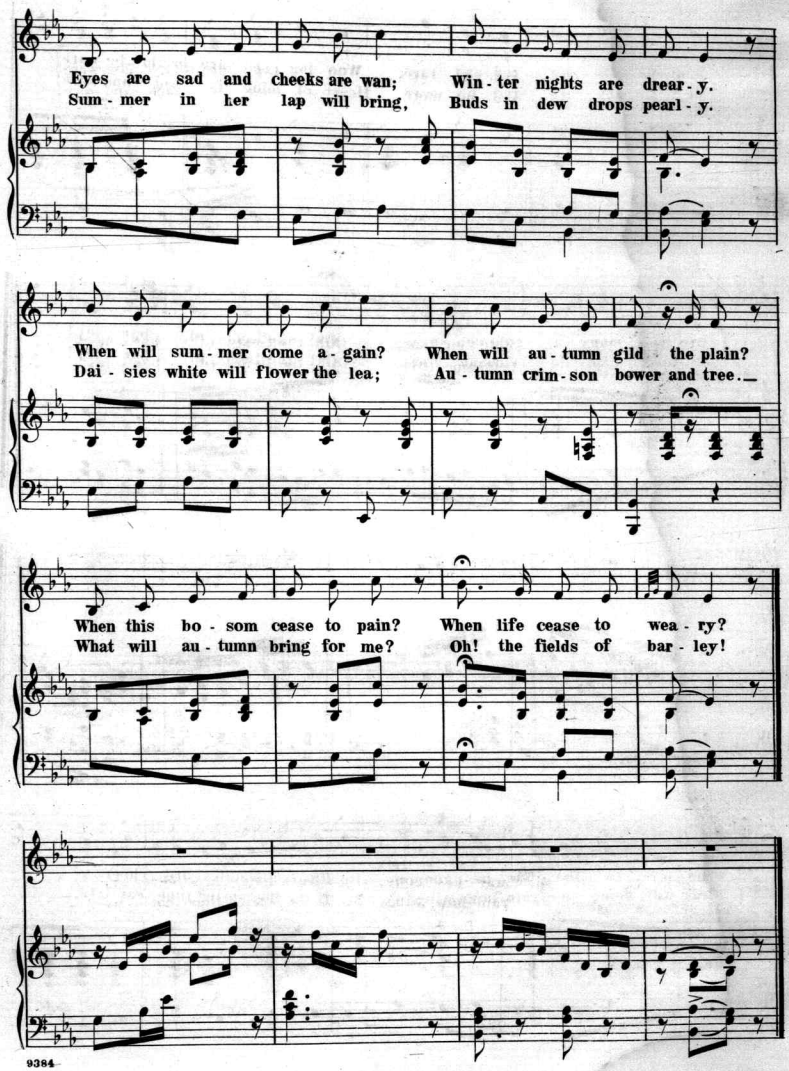
Maid-ens lips are red and rare, Woo-ing eyes are bright,—be-ware!
Laugh-ing lips are red no more, Heart of mine is sad and sore!
Love has many a gold-en snare, Oh! the fields of bar-ley!
Sor-rows cup is brimming o'er; Oh! the fields of bar-ley!
2. Char-ley to the war has gone, Bu--gle notes are cheer-y;
4. Birds will come on rain-bow wing, In the spring time ear-ly,—



Eyes are sad and cheeks are wan; Win - ter nights are drear - y.
Sum - mer in her lap will bring, Buds in dew drops pearl - y.
When will sum - mer come a - gain? When will au - tumn gild the plain?
Dai - sies white will flower the lea; Au - tumn crim - son bower and tree.
When this bo - som cease to pain? When life cease to wea - ry?
What will au - tumn bring for me? Oh! the fields of bar - ley!
