IF I ONLY HAD A HOME, SWEET HOME

MONROE PUB. CO. - MADISON ST. - CHICAGO, ILL.

IF I ONLY HAD A HOME, SWEET HOME

This is a beautiful and pathetic little song that should be in every home. Beautiful sentiment and tuneful music.

CHORUS. Tempo di Valse.

If I on - ly had a home, sweet home, Some - one to care for me, Like all the oth - er boys and girls, How hap - py I would be; A kind pa - pa and a ma - ma dear To call me all their own, This world would be all sun - shine if I Andante.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal line is in a soprano or alto range. Dynamics include f (forte) at the beginning and p (piano) for the vocal entries. The lyrics are: "In the twilight's gentle glow, sits a young man all a-lone; His In a little white thatched cottage, in a little eastern town. By the thoughts to by-gone days now fond-ly stray He is win-dow sits a moth-er old and gray In her think-ing of his moth-er, And the dear old fash-ioned home, That eyes the bright light gleams, As she sits a lone and dreams, Of her".

IN THE VALLEY WHERE THE DAISIES GROW

By W. R. WILLIAMS

¶ This is Mr. W. R. Williams' latest success in the line of "Home" songs, and is without any doubt the best song of this kind written in years. Mr. Williams seems to know just what kind of a song reaches the hearts and sentiments of the music-buying public, and we predict a greater sale for "In the valley where the daisies grow" than that old favorite "On the banks of the Wabash." ¶ Get a copy AT ONCE.

CHORUS.

In the val - ley where the dais - ies grow In the val - ley where we said good - bye When the moon rose in its glo - ry, I told her life's sweet-est sto - ry In the val - ley where the dais - ies grow.
