2.

Hung around the chimney side
 See the stockings in a row,
 In each one some toys he'll hide,
 Then upon his tramp he'll go;
 "Lots of places yet to call."
 Now he nods and winks his eye;
 Up the chimney, down the wall,
 Off he goes and shouts "good-bye!"
 Trumpets, &c.

3.

"Merry christmas to you all!"
 This he shouts while driving on;
 "And next year again I'll call,"
 In a wink away he's gone,
 Shall our greeting now be cold
 Tho' he calls but once a year?
 Friend of young and friend of old,
 Jolly Santa Claus is here!
 Trumpets, &c.
