(IRISH SONG AND CHORUS.)

Words by PHIL. ROSSITER.

Music by H. FORREST SMITH, JR.

Allegro.

PIANO

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melody in G major, starting with a quarter note G, followed by eighth notes A, B, C, D, E, F#, G, and ending with a quarter note G. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords in G major, including G2, G3, and G4, and some dyads.

This section continues the piano accompaniment. The right hand melody continues with eighth notes and quarter notes, ending with a double bar line. The left hand accompaniment consists of chords and dyads, maintaining the G major harmony.

Lively

The vocal line and piano accompaniment for the chorus. The vocal line is written in G major and begins with the lyrics. The piano accompaniment is marked p and features a rhythmic pattern of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

There's trib-u - la - tion and theres wailing down in Duf-fy's lane, For There nev-er was a christ'ning nor a con-cert in the state, But He was the darling of the girls for miles and miles a - round, Where-Good - bye then Ca-sey dear old boy for you were staunch and true, And

E - rin los - es now a gem A - mer - i - ca will gain; The Ned would go and sit a - mongst the great - est of the great; And
- ev - er there was a - ny fun poor Ned was al - ways found, Oh!
E - rins Isle can't well af - ford to lose such men as you; Oh!

pret - ty bro - ken heart - ed girls are cry - ing all the day, And when he took his 'can-been' off and bowed to ev - 'ry friend, The it would put your heart and soul in - to a ho - ly trance, To when you're in A - mer - i - ca a for - tune may you find, But Ho - gan's win - dow shades are down for Ca - sey's going a - way.

peo - ple cheered and cheered un - til we thought they'd nev - er end.
see him waltz with Brid - get Lynch who just came home from France.
don't for - get old Duf - fy's Lane and those you left be - hind.

Good bye, Casey.

CHORUS.

Good bye then Ca-sey; good bye, old boy once more, And Pad-dy Nal-ly with his jaunt-ing car drove up be-fore the door, Such howl-ing and such yowl-ing there was nev-er heard, they say, As on the well re-mem-bered morn Ned Ca-sey went a-way...

Good bye, Casey.
