IOLA OF THE DELL.

SONG AND CHORUS.

WORDS BY

MUSIC BY

ELIZA M. SHERMAN. T. MARTIN TOWNE.

A melody of surpassing loveliness, bright, sparkling and entirely original is here wedded to verse of more than ordinary poetic merit and value.

Equally good for Parlor or Concert.

I heard a ten - der song, More sweet than lay of birds, Or rip - ple of the run - ning brook, A song with sweet - est words, etc

Chorus.—"That sweet and tender song,
Once more the fond words tell,
Iola, sweetest little one,
The pride of all the dell."

The easy, flowing accompaniment is suitable for either Piano or Organ.

Ask your Music Dealer for it.

Sent, post paid, to any address, on receipt of price, 35 cents.

Mother, In Our Angel Home.

(IN MEMORIAM.)

MARIA STRAUB.

S. W. STRAUB.

The first system of the piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. Pedal markings are indicated below the left hand staff at various points.

The second system features a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line contains three verses of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and rhythmic patterns.

1. No more I see the we'-come page.... Traced by the bless-ed hand of age.....
2. I long to hear that voice a-gain..... That soothed so oft my child-ish pain.....
3. We see the ma-ny to-kens dear..... Of ten-der-ness she bore us here,....

Copyrighted, 1882, by S. W. STRAUB.

It comes no more, the mis-sis's dear. . . . That of - ten came my heart to cheer;
 'Tis stilled on earth, but an-gels hear. . . . The ten - der tones of moth-er dear;
 Oh, could the breez-es waft us o'er. . . . Love to - kens from the oth-er shore.

Yet, some-times when I'm lone and sad, Sweet mem'ries come to make me glad,
 I fain would catch the sound, to know If still in heav'n she loves me so;
 We'll pa - tient tread the way she trod, The way to life, to light and God;

m a tempo.

Fond mem'ries like some mes-sage borne. . . . From moth - er in our an - gel h me.
 I know I can - not be for - got. . . . For love in heav-en changes not.
 And some day when no more we roam. . . . She'll greet us in our an - gel home.

CHORUS.

f Easter.

Sweet mem'ries come . . . Sweet mem'ries come . . . Of mother in . . . our an-gel home ;

Sweet mem'ries come, Sweet mem'ries come Of mother in our angel home ;

Sweet mem'ries come, Sweet mem'ries come Of mother in our angel home ;

slower.

Sweet mem'ries like a mes-sage borne From mother in our an-gel home.
