OUR COT IN TENNESSEE.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Poetry by GEO. M. VICKERS.

Music by W. F. SUDDS.

Moderato.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a piano introduction in the right hand, followed by a vocal line. The piano accompaniment includes several measures with a 'Ped.' (pedal) marking and an asterisk (*). The lyrics are arranged in three lines, with the first line corresponding to the first vocal line, the second line to the second, and the third line to the third. The piano accompaniment continues throughout the lyrics, with some changes in the right hand's chordal structure.

1. Tho' low-ly born and once a slave, The world since then has smil'd on me; And
 2. Oft have I seen my home in dreams, Just as I saw it years a-go, When last I longed to go And see our far - off cot a gain.

 sigh I turned a - way From all I loved in Ten - nes - see.

CHORUS.

Sopr. But oh, how changed the dear old home, It seems no more the Alto. But oh, how changed the dear old home, It seems no more the Tenor. But oh, how changed the dear old home, It seems no more the Bass. But oh, how changed the dear old home, It seems no more the same to me, For those I love now dis-tant roam, Far from our cot in Ten-nes-see.

same to me, For those I love now dis-tant roam, Far from our cot in Ten-nes-see.

The dear old cot, The dear old cot, The dear old cot in Ten-nes-see!

Dear old cot, Dear old cot,

Dear old cot, Dear old cot, The dear old cot in Ten-nes-see!

MODERN GEMS.

Short Voluntaries for the Cabinet Organ, selected and arranged from the works of standard and classical authors.

By THOMAS A' BECKETT, Jr.

A collection of gems from the works of standard and classical writers, especially adapted for cabinet organs of all grades from the small family instrument to the largest size, with pedals, and occasions where voluntaries are required either in the church or at the fireside; they are intended for the organ, and are not piano arrangements of popular dance tunes. The list of composers whose works are introduced, embraces the names of Mozart, Handel, Mendelssohn, Haydn, Schumann, Beethoven, Chopin, Czerny, Merkell, Clarke, Schubert, Stainer, Bennett, Tours, Verdi, and others of less celebrity. Short preludes, chorales, versed and chants in various keys are interspersed for the use of young performers. As the work is intended for general use, the selection is of a medium grade of difficulty only.

ANTHEM GEMS.

For Chorus or Quartette Choirs. By W. F. SUDDS.

The publisher of the above takes pride in calling attention to a collection of anthems of great magnitude and variety, among which one may search in vain for other dry, uninteresting, and trite music, so common in modern collections of any anthems.

The anthems and arrangements are from Mendelssohn, Mozart, Spohr, Beethoven, and other standard authors, beside a number of compositions by the editor, whose paper has already placed him among, if not (as some claim) at the head of modern American composers; at all events, publishers are glad to procure his services at a great expense.

In the above work will be found solos, duets or trios suitable to the various voices, and also for solo singing, and which are written with an evident knowledge of the mechanism and capabilities of the human voice, hence no "unmusical" passages will be found. The organ accompaniments are separate, making it much easier for the average player, when required to play from the vocal score. In short, it is for the average amateur choir, undoubtedly, the best collection of anthems ever published.

Price, bound in boards, $1.00; $10.00 per dozen.

GEMS OF WALDTEUFEL.

As a writer of dance music, especially waltzes, Waldteufel is pre-eminent, and his, to-day, the position as a piano favorite, once occupied Strauss. His works are melodious, and the piano arrangements so admirably adapted to that instrument as to be easily played, and yet retain many of the orchestral effects; in particular he has great advantage of his above-mentioned competitor, whose adaptations for the piano are so difficult to come into general use. Unlike other publications of the same kind, whose adaptations are not yet very successful, and each composition is complete, with introduction and coda—a plan too frequently neglected and yet very essential, for the arrangements convey the whole story or subject of the work.

GEMS OF WALDTEUFEL contains 128 full size sheet-music plates, and is tastefully bound in half cloth. For the complete list of selections, we confidently refer to the contents (see page 15).

Price, bound in half cloth, $2.00.

SOCIAL HOURS.

THE AMETHYST.

H. C. THIBBLE.

Particular attention is called to this book, as it contains some of the most popular selections ever introduced in a book of this character. G. A. White's well-known quartets, "Sunset" and "Moonlight on the Lake," among the contents are each worth the price asked for the complete work. It is intended for the use of Choirs, Classes, Conventions, etc.

Price, 75 Cents per Copy; $7.50 per Dozen.

ORGAN PASTIME.

A popular book, containing twenty-two solos for the Cabinet Organ, arranged in an easy and particularly attractive manner.

Price, bound in paper, 75 cents.

Sep. Winner's Dollar Method for the Piano-Forte.

Sep. Winner's Dollar Method for the Reed Organ.

Since the First Edition, these books have been thoroughly revised, and their use is recommended in confidence. The simplicity and thoroughness of the arrangement of the rudiments, the easy pieces which have been judiciously selected, and the method, together with Mr. Winner's knowledge of the subject, all tend to make them the books for beginners.

THE BRILLIANT.
