

3-OCT 31
Copy 1973

TO MY MOTHER.

WE SHALL MEET ALL THE LITTLE ONES THERE

SONG & CHORUS WORDS AND MUSIC BY WILL. THOMPSON

4

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO,
PUBLISHED BY

W. L. THOMPSON & CO.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1877 by W. L. THOMPSON in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Wash.
W. J. MORRIS & CO. LTD. CLEVELAND, O.

HITCHCOCK'S MUSIC STORE, 283 SIXTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

ANYTHING IN THE MUSIC LINE.

— When you want Good, Live, Popular Music, New Music Books, or anything in the Music Line, send to —

W. L. THOMPSON & CO., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Golden Years are Passing By.

A new Song and Chorus by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price 35 cents.

This beautiful song is destined to be one of the most successful ever published in America. There is already a wonderful demand for it. We predict a popularity even greater than that of this author's famous "Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore."

My Grandpa's Advice.

A beautiful new Song and Chorus by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price 35 cents.

Sung at all first-class Concert and Minstrel entertainments throughout the United States. A general favorite everywhere. Order it and you will be sure to be suited.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

New Song and Chorus by JOHN T. RUTLEDGE. Price 35 cents

This beautiful song is founded on Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's popular novel, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It is a pathetic melody of the popular style, and will become a great favorite.

I'll Tell Your Mother.

Comic Song, by W. LAMARTINE. Price 30 cents.

A good Comic Song is a rare treat. This one will be enjoyed by all who hear it. It shows up the ludicrous side of a young gentleman's flirtations. "I'll tell your Mother how you act when you're away from home."

The Wonderful Musician.

Comic Song, by JOHN A. ARMSTRONG. Price 30 cents.

A wonderfully funny song about a musician who could play on all manner of musical instruments, and sing like a nightingale. It is sung nightly at the Eleventh Street Opera House, Philadelphia, by Hugh Daugherty, comedian of Carcross' Minstrels. It never fails to bring down the house.

Lead Me Gently Home, Father.

A beautiful Sacred Song and Quartette by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price 35 cents.

Suitable for the church choir or home circle.

Like as a Father Pitieth his Children.

A beautiful Sacred Quartette, by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price 40 cents.

The great demand for this author's famous quartette, "Come where the Lilies Bloom," has induced him to publish the above. It will be a great favorite as an opening piece for church choirs, or very suitable for church concerts.

Father, Won't You Try?

Temperance Song and Chorus, by ISAAC T. PAGE. Price 35 cents.

We call the attention of those engaged in temperance work to this beautiful Song and Chorus. It is just the thing for temperance concerts, easy and very taking. It will make a good companion to Will L. Thompson's Song and Chorus, "Don't go out To-night, Dear Father," which is now the most popular temperance song published.

Good Night, Gentle Folks.

Quartette, by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price with beautiful picture title, 50 cents.

The publishers are constantly receiving letters from concert troupes, quartette clubs, etc., saying: "If you have any more quartettes as good as 'Come where the Lilies Bloom,' send us copies at once." This demand has induced Mr. Thompson to give special attention to the above. We believe he has succeeded in composing a quartette that will become even more popular than the famous "Lilies." If you want the very latest and best quartette now published, send for "Good Night, Gentle Folks." It is just what you want for the closing piece at your next concert.

My First Music Lesson.

New Comic Song, by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price with picture title, 40 cents.

We never knew a comic song to sell faster than this one. Anyone who has taken his first music lesson will enjoy this song. It relates a very comical experience. If you want a first rate comic song, send for "My First Music Lesson."

I am King o'er the Land and the Sea.

Bass Solo with Quartette ad lib., by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price 35 cents.

Good bass songs are scarce; here is one that will fill a long-felt want; a beautiful bass song, written in the popular style, and only moderately difficult. The lowest note is F, which the voice reaches with a beautiful downward roll. It never fails to receive rounds of applause. Gentlemen of the "baser sort" are always on the lookout for good bass songs. Please call their attention to this. They will find it just what they want.

Look to the Comforter.

Beautiful Sacred Song and Quartette, by W. L. THOMPSON. Price 35 cents.

Lord, Protect Us.

Very impressive prayer for Soprano with Quartette. Price 35 cents.

Love Divine.

Solo and Quartette, arranged from the old favorite song, "Last Rose of Summer." Price 35 cents.

The above beautiful Sacred Songs will be favorites wherever introduced, either for the choir or the home circle.

The Little Blind Match Seller.

Song and Duet, by WILL L. THOMPSON, with picture title. Price 40 cents.

Sung with splendid effect by 'the blind girl' in the popular drama of the "Two Orphans."

"He Holds the Pearly Gates Ajar."

Song and Chorus, by J. CALVIN BUSHEY. Price 35 cents.

Mr. Bushey is well known as the author of "Sparkling Gems" Sunday School Singing Book, and "The Church Class," one of the most popular Singing School and Convention Books ever published.

I'm Wandering in Distant Lands.

A very pretty and easy Song and Chorus, by J. CALVIN BUSHEY. Price 30 cents.

This is, undoubtedly, the most taking Song Mr. Bushey has ever written.

Rocky Brooklet.

Polka, by THEO. WERTZACH. Price 50 cents.

An extremely brilliant and showy piece for Piano. Only moderately difficult.

Work Makes the Winning Ones.

Song and Chorus by J. CALVIN BUSHEY. Price 30 cents.

He's Coming Home To-day.

Song and Chorus by J. CALVIN BUSHEY. Price 30 cents.

'Tis Only Just a Little Way.

Song and Chorus by J. CALVIN BUSHEY. Price 30 cents.

The above three songs are the latest by Mr. Bushey, whose compositions are great favorites with those who want songs of the second grade. They are beautiful melodies with easy accompaniments, suitable for either the organ or piano. The above will become very popular.

It's Love that Makes the World go Round.

(Waltz Movement.) A home song by KARL REDAN. Price 35 cents.

This beautiful composition will live among the standards and be sung for generations to come. The author calls it a home song, but it is quite as suitable for the concert. You will not regret having ordered this piece, for it will always be a favorite.

Blue Eyed Lynette.

Song and Chorus by J. M. BARRINGER. Price with Picture Title, 40 cents.

A very choice composition. Extremely popular with minstrel and concert troupes, who are singing it in all the principal theaters and concert halls of America.

Golden Isle of Life, or "Wedded Fifty Years."

Song and Chorus by J. M. BARRINGER. Price 35 cents.

Mr. Barringer has certainly made another "hit" in this piece. We expect to see it become as popular as his "Blue Eyed Lynette."

"God Save Our Union."

New National Hymn by WILL L. THOMPSON. Price 35 cents.

The Cleveland Leader says of it: "Will L. Thompson, of East Liverpool, Ohio, the well-known author of popular songs, has written and published a National Hymn under the above title. It is a beautiful composition and bids fair to become one of the standard National Hymns of America. We recommend it to musical societies and those wanting music for patriotic occasions."

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

Gathering Shells, with Beautiful Variations.

By CARL SCHILLER. Price 50 cents.

The mere announcement of this piece will insure for it a large sale. The melody is the ever-popular "Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore," by WILL L. THOMPSON, of which nearly half a million copies have been sold.

Menlo Park Grand March.

By E. D. BROOKS. Price 35 cents.

Named after Menlo Park, the home of the distinguished inventor, Mr. Edison. The March is suitable for either organ or piano.

Granger March.

By J. L. ORR. Price 35 cents.

A very lively, easy March; becoming extremely popular as a teaching-piece of the second grade. It is within the range of five-octave organ.

John Smith's March.

By LAMARTINE. Price 35 cents.

This is undoubtedly the "hit" of the season. Every one who has a piano or cabinet organ will soon be playing "John Smith's March." It is easy and pretty. Teachers write us, saying all their young scholars insist on learning it. The demand is enormous.

W. L. Thompson & Co., East Liverpool, O.

We shall meet all the little ones There.

SONG AND CHORUS

Words and Music by WILL L. THOMPSON.

Author of Gathering Shells from the Seashore.

Drifting with the Tide, etc., etc., etc.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and a melodic line, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and a simple bass line.

1. Oh where are the lit - tle ones, lovely and fair, Who once filled our hearts full of joy?..... They have
2. No more shall we see them a - round the hearth-stone, No more shall we hear their sweet songs;.... They are
3. Oh why should we sor - row, oh why should we mourn For the lit - tle ones gone to their rest?..... On the gone to their home, free from sorrow and care, Where nothing can pleasures al - loy,..... We sing - ing in heaven a - round the great throne, With the chorus in an - gel - ic throngs..... By and wings of bright angels to heav'n they were borne, And are singing the songs of the blest..... The

The piano accompaniment for the first verse consists of two staves. The right hand plays chords and a melodic line, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and a simple bass line.

The piano accompaniment for the second verse consists of two staves. The right hand plays chords and a melodic line, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and a simple bass line.

miss them at morning, at noon and at night; Each one leaves a lone vacant chair.... But in by when the Master shall bid us to come To that land full of beau - ty so rare.... What death-an - gel hovers a-round the dear ones, He choos - es the love - ly and fair.... But there heaven we'll meet them with angels so bright, We shall meet all the little ones there.....

joy there will be in our heav-en - ly home, For we'll meet all the little ones there.....
cometh a time in the sweet by and by, When we'll meet all the little ones there.....

CHORUS.

SOPR.
We shall meet all the little ones there..... Weshall meet all the little ones there..... In

ALTO.
We shall meet all the little ones there..... Weshall meet all the little ones there..... In

TENOR.
We shall meet all the little ones there..... Weshall meet all the little ones there..... In

BASS.
We shall meet all the little ones there..... Weshall meet all the little ones there..... In there with the angels, meet them in heaven,

ACCOMP.

We shall meet all the little Ones There. 3.

ritard. Refrain ad lib.

heaven a - bove with the angels of love, We shall meet all the little ones there..... We shall heaven a - bove with the angels of love, We shall meet all the little ones, meet them all there, heaven a - bove with the angels of love, We shall meet all the little ones, meet them all there.

heaven a - bove with the angels of love, We shall meet all the little ones there.....

ritard. p

pp rit.

meet.... them all there,..... Weshall meet..... them all there.....

We shall meet them all there,..... Weshall meet them all, meet them all there.

We shall meet them all there,..... Weshall meet them all, meet them all there.

We shall meet them all there,..... Weshall meet them all there,.....

pp rit.

WILL L. THOMPSON & CO.'S

POPULAR

MUSIC CATALOGUE!

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

Drifting with the Tide—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price with beautiful picture title, 40 cents.
Such is the extraordinary popularity of this beautiful song that it is scarcely possible to keep it in print. One dealer alone has sent an order for the enormous amount of five thousand copies to be sent at one time.

Homeless and Alone To-Night—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, with handsome picture title, 40 cents.
This beautiful song is destined to become very popular. It is one of the latest productions by the author of "Gathering Shells," etc. Dealers in every part of the Union are ordering it in large quantities.

Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, with handsome picture title, 40 cents.
The most popular song in America. Two hundred thousand copies already sold, and the demand increasing.

Cast One Little Thought for Me—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, with handsome picture title, 40 cents.
Now if you want something real pretty, here it is. This is one of the latest and prettiest songs now published.

Break the News Cently to Mother—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, with beautiful picture title, 40 cents.
This beautiful song is becoming a great favorite everywhere. It is a splendid concert piece.

My Home on the Old Ohio—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
The Cleveland Herald says, "all of Thompson's pieces become popular as soon as they are introduced, but we predict for this beautiful melody a popularity beyond any heretofore published."

The Harvest Time is Passing By—Song and chorus by Will L. Thompson.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
This song is especially adapted to a contralto or baritone voice, with a chorus of mixed voices. The Pittsburgh Commercial says, "It is a beautiful song, and sure to become very popular."

The Poor Old Tramp—Song and chorus by Will L. Thompson.

Price with picture title, 40 cents.
"Selling by the thousands. The whole country will soon be singing 'The Poor Old Tramp'."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

We Shall Meet All the Little Ones There—Song and chorus by Will L. Thompson.

Price with beautiful picture title, 40 cents.
The New Hampshire Journal of Music says, "Thompson has written many beautiful songs, but we think this the most beautiful."

'Tis Sweet to Know that Jesus Loves Us—Sacred Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
A splendid melody set to beautiful words, suitable for church or home circle.

They Say There's a Land o'er the Ocean—Sacred Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
A favorite song—very easy and pleasing.

Don't Go Out To-Night, Dear Father—Temperance Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
One of the most touching songs ever written. Sung at Temperance meetings and entertainments with wonderful effect.

Brightly Beam Thine Eyes, Love—A beautiful love ballad, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, with picture title, 40 cents.
Send for this song, and present or sing it to "your own love."

Since Benny Went Over the Sea—Song and chorus, by Will L. Thompson.

Price, with fine picture title, 40 cents.
A favorite song, having a large sale all over the Union.

"Come Where the Lilies Bloom,"

Do you want a good concert quartette? If so, you may look the world over and you will not find anything prettier than by Will L. Thompson, author of the famous songs, "Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore," "Drifting with the Tide," etc., etc. The demand for this lovely quartette is enormous. We are constantly receiving such encouraging words as, "It is just what we have been looking for," "It brought down the house," "The prettiest thing I ever heard," "Received three encores last night," "Everybody loves it," etc., etc. It is not difficult to be performed by the average of singers. The usual price for a piece of this length (twelve pages) is one dollar, but in order to give it a wider circulation we have put the price, with handsome picture title, only 60 cents.

Say Your Prayers and Go to Sleep—Song and chorus, by John T. Rutledge.

Price, with beautiful picture title, 40 cents.
This is one of the prettiest songs Mr. Rutledge has ever written. Sung by minstrel troupes throughout the country.

Remember the Old Folks at Home—Song and chorus, by John T. Rutledge.

Price, with lithograph title, 40 cents.
Good words and a beautiful tune. This song is considered one of the best home songs ever written. Good advice set to beautiful music.

I'm Going Back to Alabama' to Die—Plantation song and chorus, by John T. Rutledge.

Price, with splendidly illustrated title, 40 cents.
Mr. Rutledge has made a "hit" in this song. It is by far the most popular negro plantation song since the days of "Old Folks at Home." Sung by all first class minstrel troupes.

One Little Face is Missing—Song and chorus by John T. Rutledge.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
A very touching song, which will go to the hearts of all who hear it. If you want something new and pretty send for this.

Darling Take Me to Your Heart—Song and chorus, by John T. Rutledge.

Price, - - - - 35 cents.
Every young man has a darling to whom he wants to send this song. If you have not yet wooed and won your darling, send some charming one this song and she'll be sure to come to time. It is full of choice sentiment and has a splendid melody.

No One Can Love Us Like Mother—Song and chorus, by John T. Rutledge. Price 35 cents.

A very pretty song, with splendid chorus. It will become very popular.

Sleep On Sweetly, Little Darling—Song and chorus, by W. Warren Bentley.

Price, with picture title, 40 cents.
A sweet little song, very easy and pretty.

Silver Gray—Song and chorus, by S. Turney. 30 cts.

This is pronounced by all to be the prettiest song ever composed by Mr. Turney. It has already become very popular. It has a lovely melody and is quite easy.

Come and Join the Merry Dance—Quartet by S. Turney. Price 60 cents.

A splendid concert quartette, very lively and showy. The soprano part has a beautiful solo, and the tenor and bass parts have a fine duet. This is just what you want for your next concert.
The Housekeeper's Complaint—Comic song and chorus, by Robinson. Price 30 cents.
One of the best comic songs ever published. It is a laughable account of the trials and tribulations of a housekeeper. If you want a first class comic song here it is.

Storm the Fort—Song and chorus, by W. Warren Bentley. Price 30 cents.

Words by one who thinks peer should be employed in storming instead of holding the fort. Very easy and stirring music.

Lamartine Waltzes—By Will L. Thompson. Price - 50 Cents.

Rippling Rivulet Falls Brilliance—By Will L. Thompson. Price - 50 Cents.

The above piano pieces are extremely brilliant, yet not difficult of execution. Every pianist should have them.

Templar's Parade Grand March—By Will L. Thompson. Price, with illustrated title, 40 cents.

A beautiful march, suitable for either the organ or piano. Teachers will find this one of the most popular cabinet organ teaching pieces now published.

EASY INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC
For the Organ or Piano.

- BRASS BAND MARCH—By W. Lamartine. Price 30c.
 - PEACHES AND CREAM, Waltz—By W. Lamartine. " 30c.
 - STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM, Waltz—By W. Lamartine. " 30c.
 - PLUM Pudding Waltz—By W. Lamar. " 30c.
 - PICNIC SCOTTISCH— " " 30c.
- The above five are the prettiest and most popular easy pieces ever published, excellent for the organ, and just as pretty for the piano. If you take the five we will send them any address for one dollar.

Don't Spend your Money in Buying Poor Music.

The above pieces are now being sung at all the entertainments throughout the Union. This is undoubtedly the best list of popular music now sold. If your music dealer has not the pieces you want, enclose to us the amount in postage stamps or other currency and we will send the music by return mail.

W. L. THOMPSON & CO., Music Publishers, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Scanning Target

Edison Sheet Music

Item no.: 100009366

Title: We shall meet all the little ones there

Box no. and finding aid no.: 75/5293

Digitization note:

Contact: Karen Lund, x70156
Lauren Woodis, x73939
Pat Padua, x75904