THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS.

THE BEST METHOD FOR THE PIANO.

BY W. F. SUDDS.

INCOMPARABLY THE BEST.

Endorsed by Press and Profession.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs, while for those who are compelled to become self-taught players, it will be found the most valuable aid ever published. We would call attention briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing; lessons, to be filled out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties, than other works of the kind contain.
2. The exercises are more carefully graded, introducing the pupil to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanations, which are usually left for the teacher to give orally, are, as far as possible, written in detail.
3. The art of fingering, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.
4. It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and thorough-bass, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-forte Methods.
5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this, too, is peculiar to the work.

6. It is the only piano school which treats at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much abused, "loud pedal." On this subject alone, the work is of priceless value to the young student.

7. We find among its contents, the subject of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.

8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable repertoire of piano music, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Liszt, Chopin, Morawski, and others, with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performance of each.

9. And last but not least, is included a dictionary of musical terms, with proper pronunciation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent ancient and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" opens to the student the shortest possible road to proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and recognized talent of the editor, as evinced in former works. And after a glance at the foregoing, it is almost superfluous to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials fully endorsing the above claims:

What New England says:

THOS. F. T. MARSH, Bath, Me.
The "National School" is rightly named. From what I know of your work in another department, "Amateur," I can only reason to expect much in your new work, and my expectations are more than met. It is full of many new features and such masterly treatment of the whole subject, that I can only say—"I wish to teach," and our pupils need. No instruction book that I am acquainted with embraces so much, or so clearly defines what they do outrace. I hope it may meet the success it merits.

JULIEE EICHBERG (Boston Conservatory of Music), Boston, Mass.
I find "National School" a useful and well-planned work, well adapted for its purpose and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish you all success.

The Pilot, Boston, Mass.
An exhaustive and valuable book.

S. SEIZLE, New Haven, Conn.
Our teachers consider "National School" the best of all piano schools published in the United States.

C.H. KIMBALL, Manchester, N. H.
The publishers do not claim enough for "National School." It meets a demand never so thoroughly supplied before.

F. A. FOWLER, New Haven, Conn.
I consider the "National School" has no rival among American publications.

A. S. DORRIS, Fitchburg, Mass.
I am confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction book complete in all the details of piano-forte playing.

DR. LOUIS MAAS, Boston, Mass.
After a careful survey of "National School," I am very glad to tell you that I think it one of the very best books of that description that has been brought under my notice. It is simple, comprehensive and yet exhaustive—covering everything that can be sought for in anything of its kind. I shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in my power.

What the Middle States say:

Albany (N. Y.) Morning Express.
Decided to have a large sale.

Mozart & H. Brown, New York, N. Y.
Our teachers are well pleased with "National School."

Phila. (Pa.) Chronicle-Herald.
An admirable and exhaustive work.

Harrisburg (Pa.) Independent.
Contains facts that double the amount of useful information found in any other book of the kind.

Geo. F. BASSON, Philadelphia, Pa.
As a book for teachers of the piano-forte, I can strongly recommend it.

Henry Rogers, Easton, Pa.
I have been very partial to Richardson's justly popular method, but hoped some time to see a method more complete in some respects and with clearer explanations to scholars of many puzzling details. I find that "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones, viz.: Entertaining and instructive details; remarks upon the proper use of the pedals; clear explanation of the various embellishments; latest studies of modern masters, Heller, Kohler, Liszt, and others; the exercises upon accent and remarks upon vocal accompaniment; the excellent musical and biographical dictionary, and by no means the least important, the fine treatise on Harmony with its numerous examples.

J. S. N. BURG, Philadelphia, Pa.
The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and the elegance wherever all the rudimentary parts have been therein set forth, as well as the various studies, etc. I have nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing, lessons, the several dictionaries, and the short but satisfying treatise on Harmony.

A. H. FITZGERALD, Allentown, Pa.
"National School" is a very thorough and minute work. It certainly contains everything that can be desired by teacher or pupil.

Amos GRIFFIN, Philadelphia, Pa.
In every way I find "National School" the most methodical work for that kind of instrument—what has ever been brought to my notice, and I feel that I can say confidently, and without reservation, that it is not only a thorough instructor, but also an encyclopedia, which I can recommend most heartily to the profession.

A. H. ROSEWINE, Philadelphia, Pa.
I have thoroughly examined "National School," and have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the best and most thorough instructors I have seen. Mr. Suds embodies many new and original ideas in his work, which cannot fail to prove of great value.

J. B. SWEENEY, Chester, Pa.
I think "National School" a grand success in every way.

J. P. DOUGHERTY, Chester, Pa.
I have examined "National School" the best piano instructor ever published in this country.

G. W. SHEPHERD, Akron, N. Y.
I consider "National School" worth double that of any piano school I have ever seen.

W. W. GILCHRIST, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is a most excellent and progressive work for the piano student, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

MARY M. WILSON, Philadelphia, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work, having the different grades of study well systematized and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous.

Laura Tenax, New York.
I have carefully examined "National School," and find it a very thorough work, superior to any method published.

ANNA BELLE FORD, Plainville, Pa.
"National School" is an admirable work. It will give me pleasure to recommend it.

DUDLEY BUCK, Brooklyn, N. Y.
I have examined "National School" and am glad to say that I think you have composed a good work, covering all essential points of piano playing, and which, properly made use of, cannot fail to produce good players. I trust that you will be rewarded for the labor and pains you have evidently taken.

Music and Drama, New York.
I have examined "National School" and find it a very useful work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form; and most of the studies and pieces are such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

What the Western States say:

Wm. H. SMITH, Wheeling, W. Va.
I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

Whelan (W. Va.) Register.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

S. S. BOY, Wilmington, D. C.
I think "National School" a very complete work. It contains all the grand requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progression, comprehensiveness—in a word, completeness; leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

What the Western States say:

J. B. CAMPBELL, Indianapolis, Ind.
I think "National School" supplies a long-felt want. All that is desired in a first-class. Sacramento (Cal.) Daily Record-Union.

This book is all that is claimed for it.

Chicago (Ill.) Inter-Ocean.
A valuable book of instruction and reference.

R. A. KRZYZ, Knoxville, Ill.
I am highly pleased with "National School." I think it one of the most complete works on piano technique that I have used. I shall adopt it with my pupils.

H. J. YORRIZAN, Cleveland, O.
"National School" is and to be most excellent work. It has so many advantages over every method of the kind, that it cannot fail to take the lead.

A. L. BARNHART & Co., San Francisco, Cal.
"National School" is a fine work.

I. G. LYONS, La Crosse, Wis.
"National School" is certainly a very fine work, and pronounced so by all who have seen it.

HENNING SAGE, Lapeer, Mich.
The use of "National School" should be international, for it has many features of merit than any other similar work. Its illustrations and explanations are great assistance to the teacher and its many other good things are all appreciated. It is the best.

Mrs. M. W. KRISPE, Plymouth, Ind.
I have examined your "National School," and pronounce it an excellent work.

G. W. VANNEY, Evansville, Ind.
I have no doubt, one of the most common-sense instructors. I wish you the success the merits of the book deserve.

WILL L. THOMPSON, the popular song writer, East Liverpool, Ohio.
I have been pleased with "National School." It shows careful work of a thorough musician. I believe it will become a standard.

J. H. LESLIE, Fayette, Ohio.
"National School" is the best book of its class I have ever examined—best for beginners, best for intermediate, best for advanced pupils. It is an encyclopedia, an encyclopaedia, a history and biography combined in one. It has no superior in any of its kind. I have used it for years. Our pupils, Mrs. Wirtz, agree with me.

C. J. PATTERY, Detroit, Mich.
"National School" is the best work of the kind we ever saw and I will certainly become popular.

Canada's Verdict:

CARL MARTENS, Toronto, Ontario.
I can truly say that I see much to admire in your "National School." I think it the best school of its kind, and I will certainly have a very large sale among the best and most successful teachers in Canada and the United States.

London (Ont.) Catholic Record.
It will be found the most valuable aid ever published.
