Popular Musical Publications Issued by the Publishers of this Work.

THE MODEL ORGAN METHOD.

By Geo. F. Root.

A new book for the Reed organ, by the most successful of all writers for that instrument. Mr. Root considered that, although his first book was so successful, another one adapted to and embodying the advanced ideas was wanted, and the Model Organ Method is the result.

The work strikes one as symmetrical and complete. Beginning at the very beginning, it leads, by almost imperceptible degrees of increase in difficulty and by means of really beautiful music, to such attainments as qualify one for playing tastefully and well, church music accompaniments and organ solos of medium difficulty, and to begin, if desirable, the study of the large pipe organ. Such a course occupies half of the book, the remainder being filled with a remarkable collection of music—thoroughly practicable for players of the usual attainments, pieces the right length for church use, and always attractive musically. The songs of the book will be found up to the standard in other departments; the typography is fine, and altogether its publishers feel justified in calling unusual attention to the work.

THE JOY.

A glee, chorus and sacred music book for the social circle, the singing school and musical convention, by

P. P. Bliss.

The first department of the book is edited by Dr. Geo. F. Root, and is filled with that writer's sprightliest and most melodious glees and quartettes, and in every department are Mr. Bliss' most characteristic and interesting compositions. Among the more advanced pieces are found several of Mendelssohn's best part songs, a brilliant arrangement from Offenbach and compositions by Costa, Kalliwoda, Mueller, and others. Try it by the fireside! Try it in the singing society! Try it in the choir!

SUNSHINE FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

By P. P. Bliss.

A Sunday School Singing Book for all sections and all classes. Close to the Bible? Close to the heart! Close to the musical and religious needs of the Sunday School. Great variety, deep feeling, intense melody. Responsive Scripture readings (Superintendent or Chorister and School), with many songs. Illustrating, enforcing, inviting. A novelty for every Christian worker. Hymns and tunes that never "wear out," for the family worship and prayer-meeting. A few pages of practice and pieces suitable for Saturday afternoon and concert occasions.

Is your Sunday School bright? The Sunshine will make it brighter. Is it dull? The Sunshine will enliven it. Is it cold? Sunshine is warm. Is it dark? Sunshine is light.

The author of this work is not only a musician, but the Superintendent of one of the largest Sunday Schools in Chicago, and is eminently qualified to make an appropriate and useful book. More to follow. That will be Heaven for me. Hold the Fort, and many such favorites are in the Sunshine.

F. W. ROOT'S SCHOOL OF SINGING.

A method for the voice, upon an entirely new plan, which will be found simple, comprehensible and complete. It developes power and quality of voice, rationally, and naturally, and instructs the pupil in all points concerning style of singing; it includes a course of instructions for learning to read vocal music readily at sight, and contains, besides the exercises and solfeggios for practice, a collection of the most beautiful songs extant, with minute directions for their performance. Teachers, without elaborate preparation, can use this method with entire safety and success. No singer can afford to be without it, for beside the instructions the School of Singing contains music which, if purchased in sheet form, would cost four or five time the price of the book.

The book is a companion to The Musical Curriculum, being the same size and shape, and sold upon the same terms.

THE MANNERCHOR.

A collection of Quartettes, for Men's voices; by

Geo. F. Root.

The existing books of this class, as a rule, contain music that is too difficult for most amateur singers, and with the first part too high for our tenors; but the "Mannerchor" is gotten up to meet the wants of American singers and American voices. Male Glee Societies, Colleges, Quartette Clubs will do well to get the "Mannerchor."
