and bright
The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men
A thousand hearts beat happily; and when
Music arose with its voluptuous swell,
Soft eyes looked love to eyes which spake again,
And all went merry as a marriage-bell;
* * * * *
On with the dance! let joy be unconfined;
No sleep till morn, when youth and pleasure meet
To chase the glowing hours with flying feet. Byron.

PETERS' SELECTED CATALOGUE OF POPULAR MUSIC BOOKS

BOUND COLLECTIONS OF PIANO MUSIC.

In preparing these books we have endeavored to make judicious selections, and have, as far as possible, confined ourselves to the use of such music as would stand the test of time, and repay the study which would be required to properly execute it. We have also endeavored to classify the Music according to its difficulty and character (unless otherwise specified), so that purchasers, in selecting a book to suit their wants, will find every Piece available, and not be compelled to discard nine out of ten Pieces, as being useless on account of their difficulty.
