

NO

No

3-OCT 30
Copy 1973

SONGS

Sung by

Sol Smith Russell

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| 1. The Elopement .....                       | 3½ |
| 2. Always keep cool .....                    | 3½ |
| 3. Played out or I was one of the boys ..... | 3½ |
| 4. ....                                      |    |
| 5. ....                                      |    |
| 6. ....                                      |    |

BOSTON
LOUIS P. GOULLAUD,

86 Tremont St.

Phil<sup>a</sup> Chicago San Francisco Brooklyn N York
W.H. Boner & Co. Root & Sons Music & Co. M. Gray J.W. Smith Jr & Bro. Win. A. Pond & Co.

Copyright 1876 by L.P. Goulland.

"ALWAYS KEEP COOL."

SONG.

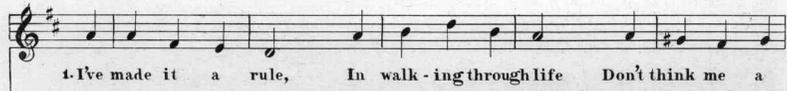

Written and composed by

ALFRED B. SEDGWICK.

Moderato.

VOICE.

PIANO.

I've made it a rule, In walk - ing through life Don't think me a fool! To a - void care or strife! What - ev - er might hap - pen, For good or for bad I've tak - en it cool - ly since I was a lad!

46L-3

Copyright, 1876, by L. P. Goulland.

CHORUS.

I al - ways keep cool! That's ev - er my rule. Through sunshine or clouds I'll al - ways keep cool! If the first should ap - pear, Or the lat - ter draw near, Its ev - er my max - im To al - ways keep cool!

Moderato.

2.

Said a friend to me once,
 "Don't think me a dunce!
 But I heard, as I think,
 Some misfortune had met you?
 If so, how is this
 Can aught be amiss
 When you coolly stand there,
 As if naught had upset you?"

SPOKEN. Oh! my dear fellow. Are you not aware that, CHO: I always keep cool &c.

3.

One day a rich uncle
 Departed this life!
 To his wrangling relatives
 Causing much strife.
 Their grief was unbounded
 Till the will it was read
 But they snarled when they found
 I was sole heir instead!

SPOKEN. And they expected me to rejoice in the same ratio, because I had come into the property. But I did nothing of the sort. My uncle had ever been a kind friend to me, and although I had received such an unexpected windfall, I could not help feeling secret sorrow that the old gentleman had passed away. Still I made no demonstrations. I neither laughed nor cried. For, CHO. I always keep cool &c.

4.

Once I courted a girl,
 And I loved her so well,
 That I made up my mind
 I'd ask her to marry?
 Said she, "No! Sirree."
 No statue for me!"
 And so through my after life
 Single I'll tarry!

SPOKEN. I suppose she expected me to flop at her feet!—extol her various charms!—compare her eyes to the stars—they were more like green gooseberries—and make an ass of myself generally! But that's not in my style! As she could not take me for what I am—per se! She had to do the other thing spite of my wealth. For, CHO. I always keep cool &c.

Scanning Target

Edison Sheet Music

Item no.: 100007981

Title: Always keep cool

Box no. and finding aid no.: 69/4779

Digitization note:

Contact: Karen Lund, x70156
Lauren Woodis, x73939
Pat Padua, x75904