

To the memory of my friend

I. B. WOODBURY

LOW IN THE DUST
OF THE VALLEY HE SLEEPS

Song & Chorus

BY

GEO. F. ROOT.

BOSTON,
RUSSELL & TOLMAN 297 Washington St.

SUCCESSORS TO RUSSELL & RICHARDSON.

ROOT & Cady, CHICAGO.

Entered according to act of Congress, in 1859, by Russell & Tolman in the Clerk's Office of the Dist. Court of Mass.

For a year or more before his death Mr. Woodbury was suffering under an attack of pulmonary disease, the progress of which he retarded by great efforts and sacrifices. He sought relief in the genial climate of Italy and in the soft air of the beautiful country of the Nile but in vain. He returned to his native land and breathed his last on his way to the South where he hoped at least to prolong his life during one more winter.
