SONG AND CHORUS.

J. P. SKELLY.

Andante Moderato.

The musical score is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). It begins with a piano introduction in the right hand, marked mf, featuring a melody with triplets and sixteenth-note patterns. The left hand provides a bass line with sixteenth-note accompaniment. The song section follows, with three verses of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady sixteenth-note pattern in the right hand and a more rhythmic bass line in the left hand.

Our Celebrated Dollar Editions.

Owing to the enormous demand for cheap music in this country and the many cheap collections that have been published (cheap in name and nature), we decided to publish a series of books, both vocal and instrumental, that would surpass anything that had ever been published in America. The demand is so large today for the series that we are constantly collecting all of the most popular music and binding in these collections. These editions are all carefully revised and fingered by prominent musicians. They are all regular SHEET MUSIC size, printed from stone; therefore you are buying our regular sheet music for almost nothing. We have published fourteen different collections and shall from time to time give to our patrons all the latest and most popular music of the day. Send for contents pages of these books and you will coincide with us that they are the cheapest and best collections ever published.
