I have roam'd the world in vain, Dear-er pla-ces to be-hold The
From the lov'd ones far a-part, On this scene I've long'd to gaze In Peace and rest I see in store, Here I lin-ger till I die With morning sun is shining, The birds their cho-rus swell, And dreams I've heard re-peat-ed My sweet-heart's last fare-well, While lov-ing hearts to cheer me I'll feel life's sweetest spell, While tr loud-ly breaks on the summer air The sound of the old church bell, And thro' the air came the call for prayer— The peal of the old church bell, While clear and blest comes the tone of rest— The peal of the old church bell, While loud-ly breaks on the summer air The sound of that dear old bell. thro' the air came the call for prayer— The peal of that dear old bell.
clear and blest comes the tone of rest— The peal of that dear old bell.
