Quite an enviable distinction this dainty little waltz song, "Little Girl, You'll Do," has won for itself when press and public have declared it to be the greatest success in Edna May's production of the "School Girl." As interpreted by Mr. Andrews, the tenor of the company, it takes several encores at each performance, and occupies a unique position as the musical masterpiece of the production.

"The simplest things, if true, are always the greatest. Your song is simplicity itself and very true, and therefore Great. Many thanks for giving me the happiness of singing it."

Quoted from Miss Sallie Fisher's letter to the composer, Clare Kummer (writer of "Egypt") after the instantaneous hit of "DEARIE," on the opening night of "Sergeant Brue."
