ro - ses bloom - ing all a - round the door - - yard In the ten - der - est of all my fond re - flec - - tions When two kitch - en door a lov - ing moth - er's face Fa - ther lov - ers made their vows be - hind the blind Ma - ny sat in the shade be - neath the old box - el - der With the love - ly things we saw there in the spring - time When the sweat of hon - est toil up - on his brow With his or - chards and the ro - ses were in bloom And the broad straw - hat sat far up - on his fore..... head I can calves and colts were play - ing 'round the barn..... yard There was close my eyes and see the pic - ture now. no place quite so dear on earth as home.

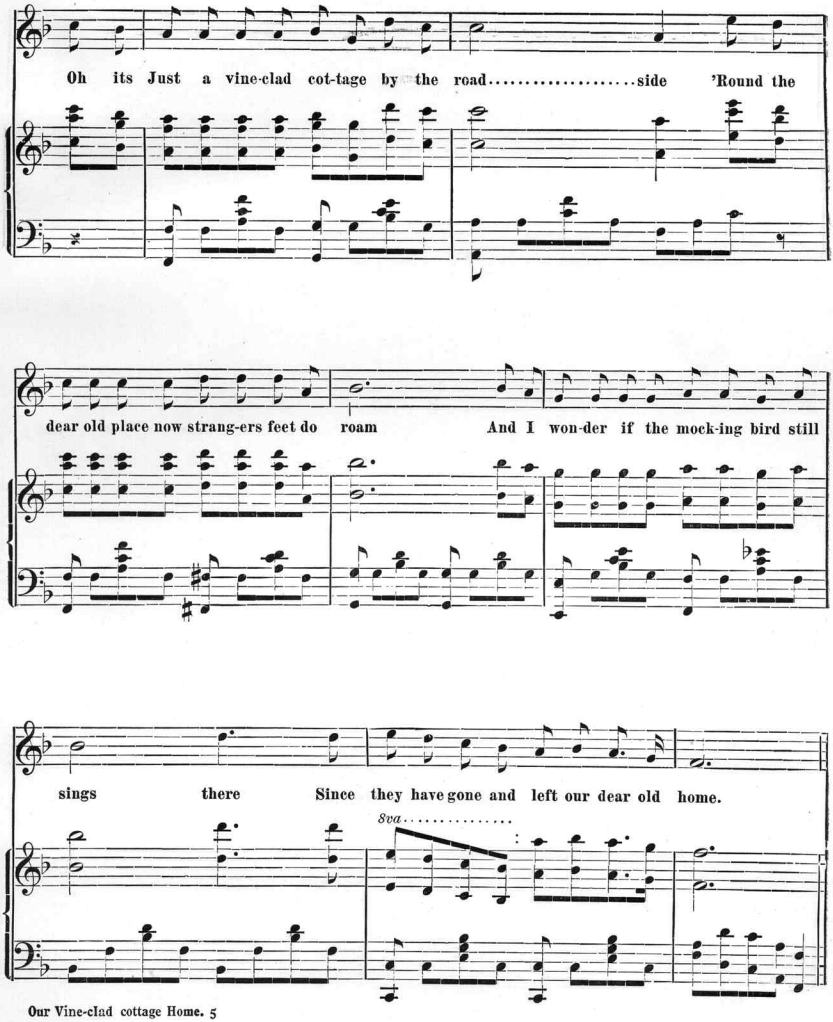
CHORUS.



Oh its Just a vine-clad cot-tage by the road.....side 'Round the dear old place now strang-ers feet do roam And I won-der if the mock-ing bird still sings there Since they have gone and left our dear old home.
