con - scious of her lonely lot, There dwells the captive child. Her wine of beauty, as their cups To morn - ing dews un - fold. The wake an ech-o in the air To charm the captive child. O swar - thy comrades deck their limbs With col - ors rich and rare, While plac - id waters smile to greet The prec-ious freight they bear, As gen - tle skies! O lovely flow'rs! Your rich-est treas - ures bear, To she in robes of in - no - cence, Gleams like a Lily there. thro the lil - y bed she floats, The fair - est Lily there.
her who roams in na-ture's bowers The fair - est Lily there.
