We hunted and we halloed, And the first thing that we found was a barn in the meadow. And if a we l it behind Look ye there.

Federal secondary model of December 29, 1922, by Firth & Bullen, the estate of the first inventor of the South? Part of New York.

One said it was a barn But the other said nay He said it was a Meetinghouse with the steeple blown away. Look ye there.

So we hunted and we halloed,
And the next thing we did find,
Was the Moon in the element,
And that we left behind.

Look ye there!

One said it was the Moon,
But the other said nay;
He said it was a Yankee cheese,
With the one half cut away.

Look ye there!

So we hunted and we halloed,
And the next thing we did find,
Was a frog in the Mill pond;
And that we left behind.

Look ye there!

One said it was a frog,
But the other said nay;
He said it was a canary bird,
With its feathers washed away.

Look ye there!

So we hunted and we halloed,
And the next thing we did find,
Was the light house in Cape Ann;
And that we left behind.

Look ye there!

One said it was the light house,
But the other said nay,
He said it was a sugar loaf,
With the paper blown away.

Look ye there!

So we hunted and we halloed,
And the last thing we did find,
Was the owl in the olive bush;
And that we left behind.

Look ye there!

One said it was an owl,
But the other said nay,
He said it was the Evil One;
And we all three ran away.

Look ye there!
