"THERE'S A SOUND AMONG THE FOREST TREES."

Words by Miss FANNY CROSEY.

Music by WM. B. BRADBURY.

Maestoso.

There's a sound a-mong the for-est trees, a - way, boys, A-way to the bat-tle-field, Hur-rah! Hear its thunders from the mountain, no de-lay, boys, We'll gird on the sword and shield. Shall we fal-ter on the threshold of our fame, boys? The light of the morn ap-pears, Hur-rah, Quick to du-ty, "Up and at them," once a-gain, boys, Hur-rah for our Vol-un-teers.

Entered according to act of Congress in A. D. 1864 by Wm. B. Bradbury, in the Clerk's office of the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

2.

With the standard of our Union waving o'er us,
 We'll shout as we march along, Hurrah!
 Like the veterans of the past who fought before us,
 Our hearts shall be true and strong.
 To the struggle, noble Heroes! let us never
 Be false to our sword or shield, Hurrah!
 To the Union let us boldly stand forever,
 And conquer, but never yield.
 Let the traitor foe advance, and the cannon loudly roar,
 With a peal as wild and shrill, Hurrah!
 In the cause of Truth and Right we will brave him as before,
 For our souls are dauntless still.

Chorus.—There's a sound among the forest trees, &c.

3.

There's an angel form above us gently twining
 A wreath for the conqueror's brow—
 Through the cloud of war a beacon light is shining—
 Away to the conflict now!
 For the spirit of departed years returning,
 Cries on to the battle-field, Hurrah!
 And the patriot fire in every heart is burning:
 We'll conquer, but never yield.
 Then our banner to the breeze, we shall triumph, never fear,
 And our bark ride proudly still, Hurrah!
 Like the noble sires who bled for the gem we hold so dear,
 On the field of Bunker Hill.

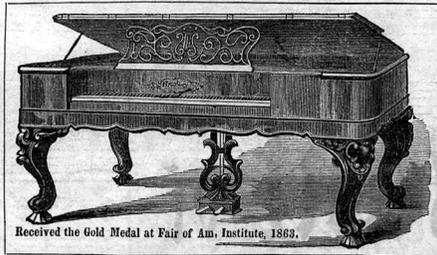

Chorus.—There's a sound among the forest trees, &c.

WM. MASON.

"Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY:

"New York, July 25, 1863.

"Dear Sir:—After repeated tests of your NEW SCALE Piano-Forte, in almost every variety of musical composition and expression, I find that they possess, in the highest degree, all the essentials of a PERFECT PIANO-FORTE.

"The GRANDNESS, purity, equality, and DURATION of tone are combined in a degree rarely to be met with, while the elasticity and perfection of the action gives the most rapid response to the touch. I consider them a VERY SUPERIOR INSTRUMENT, and as such they will command the highest commendation of the artiste, the critic, or amateur.

"Yours very truly,

WM. MASON."

J. N. PATTISON.

"Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY:—Dear Sir,—Having thoroughly tried and examined your NEW SCALE Piano-Fortes, I take great pleasure in recommending them to those desiring a SUPERIOR INSTRUMENT. For duration, fullness, and singing quality of tone, elasticity and delicacy of touch, and perfect workmanship throughout, I consider them equal to any I have seen.
