Till Ready

Ev - ry night Sar - ah Cohn would go To a mov - ing pic - ture show, - And Sar - ah's got sweet - hearts by the score, - They all hang a - round her door, - And there she saw up - on the screen, - Miss The - da Ba - ra, the "Vam - pire Queen!" - buy her all such fan - cy things, - She's got a doz - en en - gage - ment rings. -

She saw men fall for her dev'lish smile, They loved her, but she fooled them all the while, Then She can't make her naught - y eyes be - have, She charms the men and makes each one her slave, They

Sar - ah said "It's an eas - y game, - I think I can do - just the same?" - fell for her, - but she lets them lay, - Oi, she's got a dan - ger - ous way: -

Two Biggest Sellers in Years

"Some Songs!" Broadway's Verdict

"There's a Little Bit of Bad in Every Good Little Girl"

Yes, there is a "touch of tabasco"—a dash of pep and ginger—in this song. It's an irresistible twin-six success that hits the high spots of innocent fun.

You can't stop it any more than you can stop a cyclone. It carries Brice & King, Rae Samuels and other stage stars to almost endless encores.

Never before has a novelty song gripped the country like this one.

CHORUS Grant Clarke—Fred Fischer

There's a little bit of bad in ev-'ry good lit-tle girl, They're not to blame, Mother Eve was ver-'y good, but e-ve she raised Cain... They read the good book Sun-day, And "I Know I Got More Than My Share"

Here is a ballad that surges with the wonderment of grateful love. Words of gratitude set to a melody that is so sweetly beautiful it is the talk of professional and amateur world.

If "M-O-T-H-E-R" made a hit with you, here is big hit No. 2.

Get a copy of this song and you will surely get more than your share of some sweet love ballad.

CHORUS Grant Clarke—Howard Johnson

God gives the wise men their wis-dom... sends all the po-ets their dreams... To fa-ther and moth-er their love for each oth-er, we all get a share, to it seems... I thought that I was for-
