

N. Y. "Telegram" April 19, 1926.

Martha Graham appeared at the Forty-eighth Street Theatre in a "dance recital" yesterday evening, assisted by pupils of the Eastman Music School in Rochester. Solo dances and ensembles to music by Franck, Schubert, Schumann, Brahms, Debussy, Scriabine and Ravel figured on the program, with songs by Louis Horst, given by Mabel Zoehler, soprano, varying the evening's diversion.

H. F. P.