

Chicago (Ill.) "Music News."

The Philadelphia Forum, responsible for the Boston Symphony's engagement, also sponsored Martha Graham's appearances in which she gave Letter to the World, which she is programming across the country this season (and with good reason).

Early in the month Jascha Heifetz appeared under Emma Feldman's management and the Brahms Festival was held, with Igor Gorin and Rose Bampton as soloists.

Apr. 2. 1942.

—T. C.