

Miss Graham Returns In Second Concert

Martha Graham and her dance company made their second appearance of the season last night at the Forty-sixth Street Theater. The program was identical with the one of two weeks ago since Miss Graham's many admirers who had been turned away from the box office at that time. It opened with the new solo dance, "Salem Shore," and had as its chief inclusion the new "Deaths and Entrances" which calls for a company of ten. The well known "Punch and Judy" complete the list.

N. Y. Sun. Jan. 10, 1944