

HARTFORD, CONN.

May 15 TIMES 1945

* * *

"Appalachian Spring," Martha Graham's new work, had its New York premiere at the National Theater last night when her company opened a long-promised spring season. Aaron Copland composed the score, the production having been hailed as Miss Graham's greatest work.