

Graham Presents Second Program

Martha Graham appeared last night with her company at the Plymouth Theater in the second program of her two-week engagement. Her program included three familiar works: "Appalachian Spring," which had also been given the previous evening; her solo, "Salem Shore," and "Deaths and Entrances." Merce Cunningham, Erick Hawkins, Pearl Lang and May O'Donnell were among the dancers assisting Miss Graham, and Louis Horst was in charge of a chamber orchestra.

NEW YORK, N. Y.

Jan. 23

SUN 1946