

N. Y. "Sun"

Graham Presents 'Punch and Judy'

Martha Graham completed the first half of her two-week engagement at the Plymouth Theater over the past week end. Saturday night she presented with her company the season's first performance of "Punch and Judy." Also on this program was "Appalachian Spring" and "Dark Meadow." Last night the company repeated "Dark Meadow" and also gave "Herodiade" and "Letter to the World." Yesterday afternoon's program included "Salem Shore," "Deaths and Entrances" and "Appalachian Spring."

Jan. 28, 1946