LOUIS HORST—Musical Director

Sarabande Lehman Engel

'Sarabande' is a satire on a Court Dance performed here in terms of burning exaggeration.

Deep Song Henry Cowell

'Deep Song' is not meant to be an exact picture of a Spanish woman but presents the torture of mind and body experienced in common by all people who react to such suffering as the Spanish people have faced.

Frontier Louis Horst

An American perspective of the plains.

March 11th

"In his great gifts for movement he is uniquely endowed. There are the breadth and cleanness of line that bespeak authority; there is an extraordinary sparkle in his allegro; there is consummate ease in every move he makes."

—John Martin, New York Times.

"His Angel of Annunciation and Angel of Last Judgment are like Michael Angelo figures in motion."—The Morning Post, London, England.

"THE UNOFFICIAL PALACE OF ATLANTA"

Samuel Johnson once said:

"There is nothing which has yet been contrived by man, by which so much happiness is produced as by a good tavern or inn."

These words from the prolific pen of the venerable scholar describe perfectly the effect created by a visit to the Georgian Terrace.
