

Dance Festival At St. James Draws Crowd

The second program in the Holiday dance festival current at the St. James Theater was offered last evening by Martha Graham and her dance group. A large and enthusiastic audience enjoyed the proceedings hugely.

Two numbers had been seen hereabouts, namely Frontier and the longer choreography American Document. The other items listed, new to these parts, were Columbiad, a solo by Miss Graham, which found the gathering in a receptive mood, and the ballet Every Soul Is a Circus, by the whole company, a low comedy offering stunt on the unusual side for Miss Graham—which aroused the assemblage to a cataract of applause.

Louis Horst and assisting artists supplied the musical backgrounds.

R. C. B.

Dec. 28, 1939.