Dear Mr. Kaye:

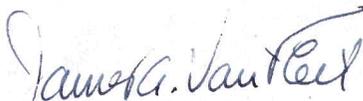

I wish to extend to you my warmest personal thanks and appreciation for the unselfish and warmly received series of performances you and your group gave here recently. During your rigorous tour you visited three corps headquarters, eight combat divisions, three major airfields, and a logistical command, performing for approximately 145,000 United Nations troops.

You and the members of your troupe are to be commended for these morale-building performances, especially those given in the forward combat areas under adverse weather and operating conditions. Your splendid show afforded our fighting men an hour of the finest entertainment, and one that they will long remember.

Certificates of appreciation have been forwarded under separate cover to you and each member of your group as a small token of thanks and gratitude from the men of the Eighth Army.

Kindest regards and all best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,

JAMES A. VAN FLEET
