Dear Consul General Kristiansen:

The presentation to Danny Kaye went off remarkably smoothly, thanks entirely to the cooperation and thoughtfulness of Mrs. Kristiansen and yourself. It is not one of life's finer moments to have hordes of photographers trooping through your home but it was all handled beautifully. Danny particularly remarked, during the ride back, on how he was taken by you and Mrs. Kristiansen. We also sensed, without his having to say so, how truly impressed and honored he felt at having been awarded the Knight's Cross of the First Class of the Order of the Dannebrog.

All in all, it was a most successful affair and we are most grateful to you for the manner in which it was brought off.

I am happy to enclose a copy of our press release, along with a clipping which appeared in this morning's Herald-Examiner. There will be many more notices, I'm sure.

Most sincerely,

Dan Jenkins
